TEMPLE FOOTBALL

MEDIA GUIDE

ISAIAH WRIGHT

◊ SIXTH FIRST TEAM ALL-AMERICAN (SPORTING NEWS, 2018) IN TEMPLE HISTORY AND THE ONLY ONE TO EARN THE DISTINCTION PRIOR TO THE END OF HIS ELIGIBILITY, BECOMING THE FIRST TEMPLE PLAYER TO PLAY AS AN ALL-AMERICAN.

◊ REIGNING FIRST-TEAM ALL-AAC RETURN SPECIALIST ... THREE-TIME AAC SPECIAL TEAMS PLAYER OF THE WEEK.

◊ AMONG ACTIVE FBS PLAYERS, WRIGHT AND NEW MEXICO STATE'S JASON HUNTLEY TIED FOR THE LEAD IN 2018 WITH THREE KICK/PUNT RETURN TOUCHDOWNS AND ALSO SHARE THE LEAD OVER THE PAST TWO SEASONS WITH FIVE SCORES EACH.

◊ WRIGHT AND HUNTLEY ARE THE ONLY PLAYERS TO HAVE MULTIPLE KICK RETURN SCORES EACH OF THE PAST TWO SEASONS. HOWEVER, WRIGHT IS THE ONLY ONE TO HAVE AT LEAST ONE KICKOFF RETURN AND ONE PUNT RETURN SCORE IN BOTH 2017 AND 2018. HE IS THE ONLY TEMPLE PLAYER IN SCHOOL HISTORY TO RECORD AT LEAST ONE KICKOFF RETURN AND ONE PUNT RETURN SCORE IN CONSECUTIVE SEASONS.

◊ FOURTH ALL-TIME IN SCHOOL RECORDS WITH 1,850 RETURN YARDS [TRAVIS SHELTON (2,521), MATT BROWN (2,499), AND MIKE PALYS (2,032)].

◊ EIGHTH ALL-TIME IN SCHOOL RECORDS WITH 3,464 ALL-PURPOSE YARDS [PAUL PALMER (6,613), MATT BROWN (5,272), JAHAD THOMAS (4,732), TANARDO SHARPS (4,502), BERNARD PIERCE (3,771), ANTHONY ANDERSON (3,750), AND TRAVIS SHELTON (3,510)].

◊ SCORED FIVE DIFFERENT WAYS IN 2017 (RUSH, RECEIVING, PUNT RETURN, KICKOFF RETURN, AND THREW A TWO-POINT CONVERSION) ... JUST THE SIXTH FBS PLAYER IN A DECADE TO DO THAT.

◊ SINCE 2000, A PLAYER HAS SCORED AT LEAST ONE RUSHING, RECEIVING, PUNT RETURN AND KICKOFF RETURN TOUCHDOWN IN THE SAME SEASON 28 TIMES. THREE PLAYERS – WRIGHT, PHILLIP LIVAS (LOUISIANA TECH) AND JEREMY MACKLIN (MISSOURI) – HAVE DONE IT TWICE BUT ONLY WRIGHT (2017-18) AND MACKLIN (2007-08) HAVE DONE IT IN CONSECUTIVE SEASONS.

^ - expected by Fall of 2019 (16)

SINCE 2014, TEMPLE FOOTBALL HAS...

- Won its first Conference Championship since 1967 and its first Conference Championship Game ever.
- Become bowl eligible for five consecutive seasons for the first time in school history.
- Participated in bowl games in back-to-back years (2015-18).
- Started a season 7-0 for the first time ever (2015).
- Became ranked in the Top 25 for the first time since 1979 (36 years).
- Had ESPN's College Gameday broadcast a Temple football game for the first time ever....from Philadelphia, no less.
- Played in Temple's first-ever ranked vs. ranked football games – vs. Notre Dame and at Houston.
- Ranked in the Top 25 for four consecutive weeks and for seven weeks total - both for the first time ever.
- Won 20 games in a two-year span for the first time ever.
- Posted 10 wins for only the second and third times in program history (1979, 2015, 2016).
- Had a national award winner - Tyler Matakevich with the Bronko Nagurski and Chuck Bednarik Award - for the first time since 1974 (when Steve Joachim won the Maxwell Award).
- Had a player earn first-team All-American honors for the first time since 1986 (Matakevich in 2015 and Isaiah Wright in 2018).
- Beaten a ranked team at home for the first time ever (#21 ECU in 2014, #21 Memphis in 2015, and #20 Cincinnati in 2018).
- Beaten a ranked team in three consecutive seasons (2014-16).
- Beat Penn State for the first time in 74 years and 40 tries.
- Beaten an SEC team (Vanderbilt) for the first time in 76 years (Florida in 1938).
- Posted the largest margin of victory in 40 seasons – a 59-0 shutout over Delaware State.
- Posted the largest margin of victory ever against an FBS opponent (57-7 at UConn in 2018).
- Beat Cincinnati in 2015 for the first time in 30 years and six tries - and have now won four straight in the series.
- Won three consecutive games on the road for the first time in 45 years.
- Posted back-to-back road game shutouts for the first time since 1925.
- Had three shutouts in a season for the first time since 1945.
- Had a player (Isaiah Wright) return a kickoff and punt for a TD in the same season (has not happened for Temple dating back to 2000. He also rushed, caught ,and threw for a score becoming just the sixth player in 10 years to score those five separate ways. In 2018, he duplicated the feat of scoring via rush, receiving, punt return and kickoff return, becoming the only FBS player to do that in consecutive seasons in over a decade.
- Broke the program record for most offensive yards in a game (670 - UCF, 2018).
- Had a 300-yard passer, 100-yard rusher, and 100-yard receiver all in one game (UCF, 2018).

ROD CAREY

Head Coach
Indiana '93
1st Season at Temple

TWITTER: @TUCoachCarey

Rod Carey, who served six years as the head coach at Northern Illinois University, was named Temple University's head football coach on January 11, 2019.

Carey, who was named NIU's head coach in December 2012, coached the Huskies in six bowl games, including leading the Mid-American Conference power against Florida State in the 2013 Discover Orange Bowl. He compiled a 52-30 won-loss record at NIU with an impressive 38-10 record in conference play.

"We are very happy to announce that Rod Carey will take over as the next Temple head football coach," said Temple University Director of Athletics Dr. Patrick Kraft in January. "Rod is a proven winner with a history of success as a head coach at the FBS level. He has won four regular season titles and two MAC Championships at Northern Illinois while taking the Huskies to six bowl games, including the 2013 Orange Bowl. He has also recruited and coached All-American players at NIU.

"He possesses all of the qualities you want to see in a person and in a coach. He is a quality man of great character and a caring individual. He is the perfect person to keep Temple Football's momentum moving forward."

"Our football program represents a great source of pride for our university and the city of Philadelphia, as well as for more than 300,000 alumni around the world," said President Richard M. Englert at the time of Carey's hiring. "Coach Carey has a proven track record of success on the football field, and also in supporting the development of his players. We are confident he will also be successful here in representing Temple University, advancing our football program, and ensuring that our players continue to serve as leaders in the classroom, on the field, and in the community."

"I am really excited to lead the Temple University Football program and look forward to continuing its proud Temple TUFF tradition," said Carey at his introductory press conference. "I am extremely grateful to President Englert and Director of Athletics Dr. Patrick Kraft for the opportunity to take over one of the top programs in the American Athletic Conference. This program is on the rise, coming off a record-setting class, and I look forward to raising the bar for success even higher.

"I am also thankful to Northern Illinois University for the opportunity to lead the Huskies the past six years, and to former president John Peters and former athletic director Jeff Compher for their trust in hiring me in 2012 and current AD Sean Frazier for his support throughout my career there. As much as I am looking forward to this incredible opportunity at Temple, it is bittersweet leaving my NIU family."

Under Carey, NIU was the dominant program in the MAC from 2013-16, winning four West Division titles and two MAC Championship games.

Carey guided NIU to a perfect 12-0 regular season record in his first full year at the helm (2013), with that Huskies' team spending nine weeks in the AP poll and rising as high as 16. He followed that year by guiding NIU to an 11-3 record in 2014, tying for the West Division title and winning the MAC Championship with a 51-17 victory over Bowling Green.

Three of the next four seasons saw Carey lead the Huskies to eight-win campaigns with his teams winning two more West Division titles. In 2018, the Huskies finished 8-6 overall, 6-2 in league play, and overcame a 29-10 third quarter deficit to defeat Buffalo, 30-29, in the MAC title game for its second conference championship under Carey.

Success has not just come in league play for Carey's teams as NIU posted a 4-2 mark against Big Ten opponents under his leadership. NIU's four wins during his tenure came against Iowa (2013), Purdue (2013), Northwestern (2014), and Nebraska (2017).

At NIU, Carey coached seven All-Americans, including defensive end Sutton Smith, who became the school's first two-time First Team All-American.

Carey rose quickly to the head coaching position upon his arrival on the NIU campus in 2011. After joining the staff as an offensive line coach, he added run game coordinator to his duties for the 2012 season and then became the offensive coordinator following the team's first game. Three months later, he was named the head coach.

Prior to his arrival at NIU, Carey served as the offensive line coach for three seasons (2008-10) at the University of North Dakota. His line paved the way for UND 1,000-yard rusher Josh Murray (1,146 yards) in 2008 and for the No. 2 running back in the Great West Conference a year later. The Fighting Sioux also passed for 2,000 yards in 2009.

In the shortest stint of his coaching career, Carey was the offensive line coach at Illinois State for the 2007 season. Prior to that, he served on the coaching staff at the University of Wisconsin-Stout for seven seasons (2000-06), where he was the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach.

A native of Wayzata, Minn., Carey began his collegiate coaching career at the University of Minnesota (1998-99) where he helped the Gophers to their first bowl game in over a decade with a trip to the 1999 Sun Bowl. Prior to UM, he spent four seasons in the high school ranks at his alma mater, Wayzata (Minn.) High School, from 1994-97.

A three-year starter at center for Indiana during his collegiate playing days (1990-93), Carey served as a team captain and won IU's Corby Davis Outstanding Offensive Player Award as a senior. He earned his bachelor's degree from Indiana in 1994.

Carey and his wife, Tonya, have two children, daughter Kennedi and son Charlie.

JEFF KNOWLES

Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers
University of Saint Francis '00
1st Season at Temple

TWITTER: @CoachKnowlesTU

Jeff Knowles came to Temple in 2019 to begin his 12th year of coaching and his first with the Owls. He has been named defensive coordinator and linebackers coach.

He spent the previous two seasons on the defensive staff at Northern Illinois University where he was hired as the linebacker coach in 2017 and added defensive coordinator title in 2018.

In 2018, the NIU defense ranked second in the country with a school-record 50 sacks. They were also ranked third in the country with 2.7 rushing yards per carry and had the MAC's best scoring defense with 20.6 points per game allowed. Knowles also helped back-to-back All-American defensive end Sutton Smith lead the FBS in sacks with 15 and was second in the country with 24.5 TFLs. Smith and LB Antonio Jones-Davis also received All-MAC honors for their work on Knowles' defense.

In Knowles' first year on the defensive staff in 2017, the Huskies enjoyed one of the top defensive seasons in recent history as NIU led the Mid-American Conference in total defense and scoring defense and broke the school record for most punts forced by its opponents. NIU led the Football Bowl Subdivision in tackles for loss and ranked second nationally in quarterback sacks.

Previously, Knowles was in charge of defensive quality control at N.C. State for three seasons. He also spent six seasons at his alma mater, University of Saint Francis. He coached the defensive line and linebackers, served as recruiting coordinator, and defensive coordinator from 2012-2013.

A native of Manhattan, Illinois, Knowles played collegiately at Saint Francis from 1996-2000, serving as team captain his final two seasons. He earned his bachelor's degree in political science from Saint Francis and completed his master's degree in education from the university in 2010.

As a prep player, he was a first team all-state linebacker on the Providence Catholic High team that won the state championship with an undefeated season in 1994.

Knowles and his wife, Sarah, have two sons, Gannon and Emmett.

MIKE UREMOVICH

Co-Offensive Coordinator/Tight Ends
Purdue '00
1st Season at Temple

TWITTER: @CoachU_TU

Mike Uremovich (pronounced you-REM-OV-vitch) joined the Temple Football staff as co-offensive coordinator in January 2019, following three seasons as the assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at Northern Illinois University.

Uremovich began his third stint as a member of the NIU staff in 2016 after previously working as the Huskies' running backs coach and special teams coordinator in 2012 under Dave Doeren, and as a graduate assistant for former head coach Joe Novak from 2001-02. Uremovich coached the NIU running backs in 2016 and worked with the tight ends and fullbacks in 2017-18.

Uremovich coached the offensive line at North Carolina State University from 2013-15, where he helped lead the Wolfpack to a pair of bowl appearances. Behind his offensive line, the 2014 Wolfpack posted the fourth-best rushing total in school history and the best per game average since 1992. At N.C. State, he coached Joe Thuney, who started every game at guard for the New England Patriots during four Super Bowl seasons (2015, 2017-19).

Before N.C. State, Uremovich was part of the NIU staff that won the 2012 MAC Championship and the only MAC team to play in a Bowl Championship Series game when the Huskies earned a berth in the 2013 Orange Bowl. The Huskies finished ninth in the nation in both rushing and scoring offense that season and were ranked 15th nationally in total offense, while the NIU special teams ranked fifth in the country in kickoff coverage and fourth in punt coverage.

Uremovich went to NIU in 2012 after a successful seven-year tenure as head coach of the NAIA University of St. Francis team (2005-11). In 2011, he led the Fighting Saints to their most successful season in school history as they won a school-record 10 games and claimed their first win over an NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) team when they defeated Georgia State. He posted a 33-45 overall record, going 27-19 over his last four seasons after rebuilding the program from the ground up.

In 2003, Uremovich began a two-year stint as offensive coordinator at Waynesburg College (Pa.). He began his coaching career at NIU as a graduate assistant on Joe Novak's staff in 2001 and 2002 for teams that each won MAC West Division titles. Prior to NIU, Uremovich's first collegiate coaching job came at Benedictine University where he was the wide receivers coach and special teams coordinator in 2000.

A graduate of Providence Catholic High, Uremovich spent four years coaching in the high school ranks, beginning his career in 1996 at McCutcheon High in Lafayette, Ind. He served as the special teams coordinator and defensive backs coach from 1996-97 before returning to his alma mater in 1998 to work with the Celtics' wide receivers from 1998-99. Providence advanced to the IHSA state playoffs both years and played in the title game in 1998.

Uremovich and his wife, Katie, have a daughter, Ella, and two sons, Michael and Drew.

ASSISTANT COACHES

FRAN BROWN

Co-Defensive Coordinator/Cornerbacks
Western Carolina '16
7th Season at Temple

TWITTER: @CoachFranTU

Fran Brown was one of four coaches retained by head coach Rod Carey on his initial staff in 2019. Brown will enter his seventh season at Temple and first since returning from Baylor.

Brown was the Bears' assistant head coach and was widely known as the staff's best recruiter and also worked with the cornerbacks. He was named a Top 10 recruiter by 24/7 Sports.

Previously at Temple, Brown spent four seasons coaching the cornerbacks. In 2015, Brown's squad of corners was led by senior Tavon Young and sophomore Sean Chandler. Chandler was a second-team All-American Athletic Conference selection, recording four interceptions that season, including two that he took back for touchdowns. Brown also recruited and worked with future NFL players such as: P.J. Walker, Nate Hairston, Haason Reddick, Jullian Taylor, Sharif Finch, Jacob Martin, and Ryquell Armstead.

In 2014, Brown's unit shined due to the play of Young and Chandler. Young earned All-American Athletic Conference honors with four interceptions and a conference-best 153 return yards. Chandler, who like Brown attended Camden High, joined the starting unit immediately as a true freshman and helped transform Temple's unit coming off a disappointing 2013 season.

The most dramatic improvement in Temple's defense came in the passing game where the unit shaved off over 100 yards per game from the previous year. In 2014, the unit allowed just 186.9 yards per game after allowing 298.6 the previous year. The Owls allowed just nine scoring passes after 24 in 2013.

In 2014, Rivals.com named Brown one of the top recruiters in the American Athletic Conference in part because of his recruitment of Chandler.

Brown received his bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Western Carolina University in 2006. Playing under assistant head coach Matt Rhule and defensive coordinator Geoff Collins, the team captain was a first-team All-SoCon selection at cornerback for the Catamounts.

Following graduation, Brown had two short stays with the Cincinnati Bengals during the 2007 and 2008 seasons.

Brown was a three-time All-Conference quarterback at Camden High School, setting the school record with 47 touchdown passes.

Brown comes back to Philadelphia with his high school sweetheart, Teara, and their two children, Fran Jr. and Brayden.

ASSISTANT COACHES

ED FOLEY

Special Teams Coordinator
Bucknell '88
12th Season at Temple

TWITTER: @COACHE_TU

Ed Foley is in his 12th season at Temple making him the longest tenured member of the staff. He was one of four coaches retained by Rod Carey, making Carey the fifth Owls' head coach that Foley had worked under.

Foley has had numerous roles with the Owls including three stints as interim head coach. He led the Owls in the 2016 Military Bowl and the 2018 Independence Bowl becoming the first Temple head coach to lead the Owls in multiple bowl games.

He spent the 2018 season as the assistant head coach offense / special teams coordinator / tight ends coach. Temple special teams have been among the best in the country under Foley and 2018 was no different. The Owls blocked five kicks and scored six special teams touchdowns. RS Isaiah Wright was the first player in school history to record a punt and kickoff return touchdown in consecutive seasons and was named first-team All-American by the Sporting News and American Athletic Conference Special Teams Player of the Year. His two leading tight ends also combined for 23 catches, 279 yards, two touchdowns, and a two point conversion.

In 2016, Foley helped mentor freshman kicker Aaron Boumerhi to second-team all-conference honors after being substituted for Austin Jones when he went down with an ACL injury at Memphis. With a combined 21-of-25 on the season for Jones and Boumerhi, Temple's kickers ranked at the top of the conference in FG percentage. Also, as a tight end coach, he helped Colin Thompson earn honorable mention all-conference.

In 2015, he made an immediate impact on special teams in his first year as the coordinator. Temple blocked an NCAA leading seven kicks, Jahad Thomas tied a team record with a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown, and Austin Jones set the school record for field goals made (23) and points by a kicker (113).

In 2013, Foley helped develop former QB Chris Coyer into a tight end. That progress was hindered due to nagging injuries but Coyer closed out his senior campaign with 129 receiving yards and a TD in the season finale.

In 2010, Foley's tight ends and offensive line helped the team to an 8-4 regular-season record. The Owls recorded back-to-back winning seasons for the first time since 1978-79. A school record six offensive players earned All-MAC accolades, including first-team honorees TE Evan Rodriguez, OL Colin Madison, and OL Darius Morris. Madison and Morris became the first repeat first-team All-MAC recipients in school history.

In 2009, the tight ends and offensive line helped TU win a single-season record nine consecutive games en route to a 9-4 overall record and a first-place tie in the MAC East. Five offensive players were named All-MAC, including senior TE Steve Maneri and four linemen. Juniors Colin Madison and Darius Morris earned First Team accolades.

In his first season with the Owls in 2008, Foley helped Temple to its most wins in nearly two decades. The Owls out-scored their opponents for the season for the first time since 1990. Foley also helped Temple bring in its fourth highly-touted recruiting class with Al Golden being the head coach.

A native of Cherry Hill, NJ, Foley returned to the City of Brotherly Love after spending two seasons at Hofstra as the assistant head coach, offensive coordinator, and offensive line coach. The Pride offense blossomed under Foley in his first year as coordinator, increasing its yardage total from 269 to 388 yards per contest from the previous year. The Pride's scoring output also increased from 16.8 to 26.9 points per game. Foley also brought balance to the Pride attack as Hofstra's rushing total was its highest since 2000 (145 yards/game) and its passing attack netted 243 yards per contest. Charles Sullivan left as the all-time leader in receptions and yards after catching 86 balls for 991 yards under Foley's tutelage.

Prior to joining the Pride, Foley served seven years at Fordham University, including two seasons as head coach from 2004-05. After a 5-6 record in 2004, a season in which the Rams dropped four games by a touchdown or less, Fordham slipped to a 2-9 mark in 2005. As Fordham's offensive coordinator and offensive line coach from 1999 through 2003, Foley helped rejuvenate a program that rose to the top of the Patriot League in 2002, when it won its first-ever league title with a 10-3 record. In 2003, the Rams compiled a 9-3 overall record and had 12 players named to the All-Patriot League Team, including six members on the offense, four of whom were named to the first team.

Under Foley's guidance, the Fordham offense set numerous team and individual records. The Rams set a team record for most rushing yards in a season in 2003, gaining 1,657 yards, while also setting a school record for most pass completions in a season with 255. In 2002, Fordham led the Patriot League in passing offense and scoring offense, while finishing second in total offense, setting a team record for most points in a season. In addition to winning the Patriot League title that season, the Rams advanced to the NCAA I-AA Playoffs, where they defeated Northeastern University in the first round.

In 2001, Foley helped the Fordham offense develop its first 1,000-yard rusher on the NCAA Division I-AA level, as well as the first-ever 1,000-yard receiver in Fordham's history. The Rams had the second-ranked passing offense in the Patriot League in 2001 as well as the second-best scoring offense. In 2000, Foley's offense established a running game that generated 1,635 yards (an average of 148.6 per game), the most for a Fordham team on the I-AA level until the 2003 team gained 1,657.

Foley arrived at Fordham after spending the 1998 season as the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach at Jacksonville University, which sponsored a football team that year for the first time in the school's history. Foley helped lead the Dolphins to a 4-5 record during their inaugural season, as the offense scored 271 points in nine games (30.1 ppg). The Dolphin attack averaged 380 yards per game, a perfectly balanced 190 yards rushing and passing per game.

Foley also served as an assistant coach at the University of Pennsylvania from 1991 to 1993, and again from 1995 to 1997, spending the 1994 season as an assistant at Williams College. At Penn, Foley coached the tight ends and tackles for five years and helped the Quakers to a perfect 10-0 record in 1993, when they also won the Ivy League Championship. Prior to his stint at Penn, Foley served as the offensive line coach at the State University of New York (SUNY) - Albany for two years.

Foley was a three-year starter at Bucknell University, playing offensive guard for one season and center for two. During his junior year, he was named the team's top lineman, and he served as a captain during his senior year. He earned a bachelor's degree in psychology from Bucknell in 1989 and a master's degree in educational psychology at SUNY Albany in 1991.

Foley and his wife Rebecca have two sons, Charlie and Luke, and a daughter Sara. His brother Glenn was a seven-year NFL veteran quarterback, playing with the New York Jets and Seattle Seahawks from 1993 to 2000.

CRAIG HARMON

Quarterbacks
Quincy College '02
1st Season at Temple

TWITTER: @CoachHarmonTU

Craig Harmon enters his first season on the Temple Football staff as the quarterbacks coach following four seasons with Coach Carey at NIU.

Harmon has had a variety of positions within Carey's staff but most recently was the quarterbacks coach from 2016-2018. The 2018 season the offense did well in the air amassing 2,175 passing yards and 15 touchdowns with six different receivers catching touchdowns. It was a challenging season for Harmon in 2017 as NIU used three different starting signal callers. It was the second consecutive season NIU employed multiple starting quarterbacks to execute the offense.

Due to injury, four different quarterbacks started games for NIU in 2016 as Harmon's protégés embraced the "next man up" philosophy. The quartet combined to complete 58 percent of their passes for 2,688 yards and 20 touchdowns while rushing for 833 yards and averaging almost five yards per rush.

Harmon was the tight ends/fullbacks/special teams coordinator in 2015 and was the tight ends and fullbacks coach in 2014.

In 2015, NIU's special teams units also excelled under Harmon as kickoff returner Aregeros Turner was named the MAC Special Teams Player of the Year and kicker Christian Hagan garnered first-team All-MAC honors in 2015.

In 2014 and 2015, Harmon's players helped the Huskies' offense excel in both the rushing and passing games with tight end Shane Wimann developing into one of the most productive players at that position in school history. In 2014, NIU finished with more than 6,000 yards of total offense and won 11 games along with the Mid-American Conference Championship.

Harmon spent the 2013 season as tight ends coach at Division III power Wisconsin-Whitewater, which posted a 15-0 record and won the national title. Prior to 2013, he was the tight ends and assistant offensive line coach at Georgia State University in Atlanta from 2010-12, working for head coach Bill Curry to help start the GSU program.

Harmon was offensive coordinator and recruiting coordinator for four seasons (2006-09) at the University of St. Francis in Joliet, Illinois.

Harmon's first stint at NIU was as a graduate assistant in 2004 and 2005 where he worked with the offense.

Harmon walked on to the team and played quarterback for NIU from 1998-2000. He redshirted the 1999 campaign but returned to play as a back-up quarterback in 2000 before transferring to Quincy University, where he completed his playing career and earned his bachelor's degree in physical education.

After graduating from Quincy in 2002, Harmon began his coaching career as a graduate assistant coach at his alma mater. He received his master's degree from Quincy University the following year.

He played his prep football at Alton High School in Alton, Illinois. He has a wife, Megan and they have a son, Cooper, and three daughters, Morgan, Madison, and Mia.

New head coach Rod Carey announced that Gabe Infante would be one of four coaches retained to his initial Temple coaching staff. He has been named the running backs coach. It will be Infante's first season on the Temple staff and 10th season coaching football in the Philadelphia area.

Infante left the head coaching position at St. Joseph's Prep to become an assistant coach for the Owls. While at St. Joseph's, Infante compiled a 91-23 record and won four PIAA state championships in nine seasons with the Hawks. Over the last three seasons, the Hawks were an impressive 40-1 with two state championships under Infante. In 2017, he was named U.S. Army Bowl National Coach of the Year and served as head coach of the U-17 National team. He won the 2018 Don Shula High School Coach of the Year Award after being nominated by the Philadelphia Eagles.

A two-time Don Shula High School Coach of the Year nominee, Infante is a member of USA Football's Advisory Committee and is a Master Trainer in USA Football's Heads Up program. Infante traveled around the country conducting player safety clinics and helped promote the program's techniques and benefits to youth and high school coaches. He worked national clinics for Nike, Glazier, and Hammer Strength and has been published by American Football Monthly.

Before coaching at St. Joseph's Prep, Infante served as head coach at Paramus Catholic High for two seasons after two years as defensive coordinator at Bergen Catholic High.

He was a three-sport athlete at Memorial High in West New York, N.J. playing football, basketball, and baseball. Infante continued his sports career in college, playing football at Holy Cross.

Infante is a graduate of New York Law School and is a licensed attorney in the state of New Jersey.

MELVIN RICE

Safeties
Northern Illinois '09
1st Season at Temple

TWITTER: @coachMRice

Melvin Rice starts his first season at Temple following three seasons working with the cornerbacks on Rod Carey's NIU staff. He has been named the safeties coach.

During Rice's tenure at NIU, the defense was very productive in the passing game averaging over a dozen interceptions and 43 PBUs. The cornerback unit tallied 11 picks, including two returned for scores. In 2018 NIU ranked in the top 50 in passing efficiency defense. In 2016, his star pupil, Shawun Lurry, tied the school record for interceptions in a career after making two, including a pick-six in the victory at Nebraska. Lurry, a 2015 All-American, finished his career with 16 interceptions.

Rice spent the 2015 season as cornerbacks coach at Southeast Missouri State mentoring Mike Ford who went on to play for the Detroit Lions. Prior to that, he was on the defensive staff at Minnesota from 2011-2014. He began his coaching career at NIU in 2010 as a graduate assistant coach.

As a member of head coach Tom Matukewicz' staff at SEMO in 2015, Rice helped the Redhawks rank fourth in the Ohio Valley Conference in scoring defense and in interceptions. As the defensive quality control assistant at Minnesota, Rice handled opponent scouting, self-scouting and day-to-day operations of the defensive staff as the Gophers played in three bowl games during his time there.

As a graduate assistant coach at NIU in 2010, he was part of the staff that led the Huskies to an 11-3 record, NIU's first of what became six consecutive Mid-American Conference Championship game appearances and a victory in the Humanitarian (now Famous Idaho Potato) Bowl. During that time, he mentored all-conference CB Chris Smith.

A four-year letterwinner (2005-08) who started his final three seasons for the Huskies and played in two bowl games and the 2005 MAC Championship contest, Rice made 175 career tackles, with eight for loss, two interceptions, and 18 pass break-ups. He had a career-best 61 stops as a junior and was credited with 50 total tackles as a senior. He led the team in pass break-ups both of those seasons.

A 2009 graduate of NIU with a degree in sociology/criminology, Rice spent the 2009 season as an assistant coach at Morgan Park High School, helping the Mustangs to the conference championship and a berth in the state playoffs. As a prep player at Morgan Park, Rice was named first-team All-Public League and also earned all-state honors from the Chicago Sun-Times, Chicago Tribune, Champaign News-Gazette, and Illinois High School Football Coaches Association as a senior.

Rice and his wife, Gabrielle, have two sons, Macklin and Mackai.

WALTER STEWART

Defensive Line
Cincinnati '12
1st Season at Temple

TWITTER: @theGuruStew

Former Cincinnati standout Walter Stewart joined the Temple coaching staff in January 2018, as the defensive line coach.

Before coming to Philadelphia, Stewart coached the defensive line at NIU for one season under head coach Rod Carey. In 2018, NIU was second in the country behind Clemson with 50 sacks. He also coached back-to-back All-American defensive end Sutton Smith at NIU.

Prior to NIU, Stewart spent the 2016 and 2017 seasons at Eastern Kentucky as the defensive line coach. In 2015, Stewart coached the defensive ends at Florida A&M.

At Eastern Kentucky, Stewart's defensive line racked up 53 total sacks in his two seasons, including 21 in 2016 when the Colonels ranked 27th in the FCS with 2.45 sacks per game and the team allowed the fewest passing touchdowns (12) since the 2005 season. In 2017, EKU ranked second in the Ohio Valley Conference in sacks. Two of his pupils earned first team all-conference players during his time at Eastern Kentucky.

He started his coaching career as a graduate assistant defensive line coach at Tennessee from 2013-2014. At Tennessee, he helped coach a pair of All-SEC defensive linemen on the team that went on to play in the 2014 TaxSlayer Bowl.

In his playing career, Stewart was a defensive lineman at the University of Cincinnati for head coach Butch Jones. He earned the team's most outstanding defensive lineman award his senior year in 2012 and was a two-time team captain. In his five years at Cincinnati, the Bearcats won four Big East Championships and made four bowl games, including the 2009 Allstate Sugar Bowl and 2008 FedEx Orange Bowl.

Stewart earned a bachelor's degree in sociology at Cincinnati in 2012.

He and his fiancé, Rebecca Borukhovsky, have a daughter, Niya, and son, Nolan.

JOE TRIPODI

Offensive Line
Northwestern '06
1st Season at Temple

TWITTER: @CoachTripodi51

Joe Tripodi joined the Temple Football in January 2019 following nine seasons at NIU, six as the offensive line coach.

Tripodi had been the offensive line coach at NIU since 2013, he also added run game coordinator to his role from 2016-18. His offensive line helped pave the way for the Huskies to average 240 rushing yards per game, the best in the MAC in 2018. Over the last four years, the Huskies' offensive line ranked among the nation's best in fewest sacks allowed.

In his nine seasons working with the Huskies' offense, 15 of his players have earned All Mid-American Conference honors, including three in 2015. He has coached three All-Americans - Trevor Olson and Scott Wedige earned the recognition in 2011, while 2016 All-MAC tackle Max Scharping was a 2015 Freshman All-American.

Tripodi spent two seasons as a graduate assistant on the Huskies' coaching staff before serving as tight ends and fullbacks coach during NIU's 2012 MAC Championship season. He spent his first two GA seasons at NIU working with the offensive line and led the unit in the Huskies' 40-17 victory over Fresno State in the 2010 Humanitarian Bowl.

Before becoming a graduate assistant at NIU in 2010, he started as the defensive line coach at Chelsea High (Mich.), his alma mater, in 2008 and 2009.

Tripodi started at left guard for Northwestern in 2005 and 2006 and was a co-recipient of the 2006 Randy Walker Wildcat Award, given for work-ethic, toughness, and warrior attitude.

He graduated from Northwestern in 2006 with a bachelor's degree in communications and earned his master's in adult and higher education at NIU. Tripodi is married to the former Rachel Munoz, and they have two children: daughter Emma and son Roman.

ASSISTANT COACHES

THAD WARD

Pass Game Coordinator/Wide Receivers
UCF '01
1st Season at Temple

TWITTER: @wardth09

Thad Ward joined the Temple Football staff following three seasons as the running backs coach at the University of Illinois under head coach Lovie Smith. He has been named the pass game coordinator and wide receivers coach.

Ward coached the Fighting Illini running backs from 2016-2018. In 2018, Ward coached stand out running backs Reggie Corbin and A.J. Bush. Corbin finished 2018 with 128 carries for 1,085 yards and nine touchdowns. His 8.5 yards per carry was the best in the FBS. Bush finished with 138 carries for 869 yards and eight touchdowns.

In 2017, Ward had freshman Mike Epstein start three of the first five games at running back before a promising start was cut short by an injury. Epstein carried the ball 57 times for 346 yards and three touchdowns, managing to still lead the team in rushing yards despite playing in only five games. He was the fifth true freshman in program history to lead the team in rushing yards and also tied for the team lead with four total touchdowns. Epstein had a team-high 111 rushing yards against Western Kentucky.

In his first season with the Fighting Illini in 2016, Ward helped junior running back Kendrick Foster have a breakout year. Foster finished the regular season ranked third in the Big Ten in yards per carry (5.7) and seventh in all-purpose yards per game (110.7). Redshirt freshman Reggie Corbin also had a big season, finishing 14th in the nation in yards per carry among freshmen (6.1), the best mark by an Illini freshman since at least 2000.

He was brought to Illinois following three seasons coaching the wide receivers at Northern Illinois University under Rod Carey. Ward helped Northern Illinois to a 31-11 record from 2013-15 prior to his arrival at Illinois, including two trips to the Poinsettia Bowl (2013, '15) and one appearance in the Boca Raton Bowl (2014). His success was highlighted by two-time All-MAC honoree Da'Ron Brown's selection by the Kansas City Chiefs in the seventh round of the 2015 NFL Draft. Brown caught 68 passes for 1,065 yards and six touchdowns to lead the Huskies to the 2014 MAC championship. He also helped develop Kenny Golladay, drafted by the Detroit Lions in the third round in 2017, and Tommylee Lewis, an undrafted free agent sign by the New Orleans Saints in 2016.

Ward arrived at NIU from Western Michigan in 2012. In one season with the Broncos, Ward developed wide receiver Jaime Wilson into WMU's No. 1 receiver on his way to the MAC Freshman of the Year award. Wilson had 67 receptions for 792 yards and six touchdowns in his first year at Western Michigan.

Prior to WMU, Ward spent one season at Gardner-Webb as the wide receivers coach/passing game coordinator in 2011 following six seasons as the running backs coach at Western Illinois from 2005-10. He helped Western Illinois reach the FCS Playoffs and beat Coastal Carolina, 17-10, in the first round. The Leathernecks fell to No. 1-seed Appalachian State, 42-14, in the quarterfinals.

Ward started his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Florida A&M before spending two years coaching high school football at Tallahassee Rickards High School from 2003-04.

Ward played at UCF (1999-2001) and Coffeyville Community College (1997-98) following an all-state high school career in Florida. Ward was an all-conference selection at Coffeyville. He caught 43 passes for 446 yards with a touchdown as a senior at UCF. Ward finished his bachelor's degree at UCF in 2001.

He and his wife, Jocelyn, have two daughters, Jayda and Journie, and one son, Thaddaeus, Jr.

STEVE CRUTCHLEY

Offfensive Analyst
Wisconsin-Eau Claire '99
1st Season at Temple

TWITTER: @CoachCrutchley

Steve Crutchley joined the Temple Football coaching staff in January 2019 as an offensive analyst following two seasons with Coach Rod Carey and Northern Illinois University.

Crutchley worked with the wide receivers while on staff at NIU. In 2017, Crutchley tutored three receivers with 40-or-more catches. It was the first time since 2011 three different Huskies' wide receivers tallied 40-or-more receptions in the same season. Spencer Tears led the way with 43 catches for 528 yards, while Christian Blake amassed 442 yards on a career-high 41 receptions. D.J. Brown made a big leap from his sophomore to junior year, establishing career highs in catches (42) and receiving yards (365) in 2017.

Before being hired at NIU, Crutchley was head coach at Eau Claire (Wisc.) Memorial in 2016. From 2013-2015 he was an assistant head coach at Western Illinois University. At Western Illinois, Crutchley coached running backs and had a 1,000-yard rusher earn All-Missouri Valley Football Conference (MVFC) honors in each of his seasons there. He also handled multiple administrative roles including recruiting coordinator, academics, life skills and internal operations. He was part of the staff that led the Leathernecks to the FCS Playoffs in 2015. Crutchley was promoted to associate head coach for the 2015.

Crutchley worked with the running backs at Southern Illinois University from 2008-12. During his time at Southern Illinois, he coached two different running backs to All-America honors and helped the Salukis win back-to-back conference championships and make a pair of FCS playoff appearances. SIU had three 1,000-yard rushers during his time there.

Crutchley began his collegiate coaching career at St. Cloud State University where he served as wide receivers coach and assistant life skills director from 2002-2007.

As a wide receiver at Wisconsin-Eau Claire from 1996-99, Crutchley was a four-time Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (WIAC) Scholar-Athlete, received the Henry and Shirley Vance School of Education Award in 1998, and was twice nominated for the Leadership Recognition Award. He captained the football team that won the WIAA title in 1998. In addition, he was a member of the Blugold track and field team and twice participated in the NCAA Championships in the 4x100 meter relay. He won the conference championship in the indoor 200 meters and was named the team's most valuable track athlete in 1998 and 1999.

Crutchley earned his bachelor's degree from Wisconsin-Eau Claire in 1999 and received his master's degree in sports management from St. Cloud State in 2006.

ADAM DIMICHELE

Offensive Analyst
Temple '09
7th Season at Temple

TWITTER: @CoachAD_TU

New head coach Rod Carey announced that Adam DiMichele would be one of four coaches retained to his initial Temple coaching staff. DiMichele is now in an off-field role as an offensive analyst. That makes 2019 DiMichele's seventh straight year on the Temple staff and 9th total on the North Broad Street campus following a stellar career with the Owls from 2007-08.

DiMichele was the quarterback/inside receivers coach/recruiting coordinator-offense in 2018. He also served as quality control offense/recruiting assistant (2017), director of player development (2015-16), wide receiver coach (2014) and graduate assistant (2013).

DiMichele is credited with the development of redshirt sophomore quarterback Anthony Russo who started 10 games in 2018 and posted 2,563 passing yards and 14 touchdowns while leading the team to a 7-3 record in those starts.

In 2014, DiMichele was named wide receivers coach. As such, he became the 19th Temple football player to serve as a full-time coach and the first in over 25 seasons.

Since graduation, DiMichele has played professional football, including stints in the NFL and CFL. During the 2012 season, he played with the Philadelphia Soul of the Arena Football League.

Named the 2011 Southern Indoor Football League MVP, DiMichele led the Erie Explosion to a 9-3 record en route to a division title. He led the league in passing yards per game (270.6), team points per game (70.2), and total team offensive yards per game (260.0), while completing 235-of-427 passes (55%) for over 3,200 yards and a league-best 91 touchdowns to just seven interceptions.

DiMichele has also spent time with the Philadelphia Eagles (2009), the Calgary Stampeders (2009), and the Winnipeg Blue Bombers (2009).

Temple's two-time MVP and team captain in 2007 and 2008, DiMichele finished his career ranked fourth in school history with 5,024 passing yards, adding 40 passing touchdowns and five rushing scores. During his first season as the Owls' signal caller (2006), DiMichele played in all 11 games with nine starts as a sophomore. In 2007, he started the first eight games before suffering a season-ending injury. In one of Temple's biggest comebacks in school history, DiMichele threw three fourth-quarter touchdowns to lead TU to a come-from-behind win at Akron during their first season of Mid-American Conference play. In 2008, he overcame intense rehabilitation and started nine games as a senior. In the 55-52 win over Eastern Michigan, DiMichele threw for a school record six touchdowns and passed for a career-high 370 yards. He broke school records for passing touchdowns in a game (six) and set a career-high for passing yards in a game (370). His 370 yards marked his 10th 200-plus passing yardage games, which rank him third on the Temple's career list for 200-yard passers. It also marked his fourth 300-plus passing game, which tied the school record with Henry Burris.

DiMichele finished the 2008 season at 134-of-231 (58.0 percent) for 1,911 yards and 18 touchdowns in nine games also rushed 61 times for 91 yards and three touchdowns. His passing efficiency (148.02) ranked #19 in the final NCAA statistics. He finished his career with 5,024 passing yards which ranks fourth on Temple's all-time chart.

One of the most accomplished prep athletes in the history of Pennsylvania, DiMichele was a three-sport all-state selection as a senior in football, basketball, and baseball at Sto-Rox High School. The McKees Rocks, Pa., native had one of the best high school careers in the history of Pennsylvania as the Western Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic League's all-time leading passer, which includes breaking records set by former NFL greats and Hall of Famers Joe Montana, Dan Marino, and Joe Namath. He earned first-team all-state honors in all three sports and was cited as the state Player of the Year in both football and basketball.

DiMichele was inducted into the WPIAL Hall of Fame in 2011.

Prior to joining the Owls, DiMichele attended Okaloosa-Walton College (FL) for two years to play baseball. He was selected in the 38th round of the 2005 Major League Baseball Draft by the Toronto Blue Jays.

DiMichele received his degree in sport and recreation management from Temple in 2009. He is pursuing a master's degree in sports psychology.

One of seven children, DiMichele's younger brother Alex played football at Temple before transferring to Robert Morris. His brother Anthony played football at Holy Cross. Both brothers were I-AA All-Americans.

DiMichele and his wife, Kathy, reside in Cherry Hill, N.J., with their newborn son Grayson.

JAKE LANDRY

Offensive Analyst
North Dakota '11
1st Season at Temple

TWITTER: @Landry6

Jake Landry, a former player for Rod Carey at North Dakota, joined the Temple Football staff as an analyst following one season as the running backs coach at NIU.

Before going back to NIU, Landry spent the 2016 and 2017 seasons as the offensive coordinator at the University of Wisconsin–La Crosse, where he led the offense to two of the most productive season in program history. With Landry at the helm, the Eagles posted two of the top five yardage totals in school history, while the passing attack led the WIAC both years. He was named the 2017 WIAC Co-Assistant Coach of the Year following the 2017 season when UW-L finished 8-2 to record its most wins since 2006.

Landry spent three seasons at NIU (2013-2015), the final two as a graduate assistant. During that time, he worked with the quarterbacks (2013, 2015) and linebackers (2014), helping NIU reach three bowl games and average 31.1 points per game in 2015.

Landry went to NIU after spending two seasons as the wide receivers coach while a graduate assistant at Minnesota-Duluth. During his tenure with Minnesota-Duluth, the Bulldogs won two Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference North divisional titles and won 21 games. They also averaged a school record 46 points per game in 2012.

A four-year letterwinner at North Dakota from 2007-10, Landry was the team's starting quarterback and served as team captain his last two seasons. As a junior and senior, he threw 26 touchdowns and 3,296 yards in 29 games while recording a passing efficiency rating of 186.86.

A native of Grand Forks, N.D., Landry received his bachelor's degree in communications from North Dakota in 2011 and earned his master's degree from Minnesota-Duluth in 2015.

1st Season at Temple

TWITTER: @DSabock

Dan Sabock joined the Temple Football staff in January 2019 following two seasons on staff at NIU.

In 2018, Sabock led the special teams unit that ranked fifth in the country with five blocked kicks as the Huskies won the MAC Championship.

Sabock joined the Huskies' coaching staff in 2017 and led NIU's special teams, an area where the Huskies had a great deal of success in his first season working with the group. NIU special teams' units blocked two field goals, and four punts in 2017, including two against Ball State. Jackson Abresch recovered both blocked punts against the Cardinals for touchdowns, becoming just the third player in NCAA history to do so. The Huskie specialists also recorded two blocks in the same game, a punt and a field goal, against Eastern Michigan. The blocked punts were the first by NIU in six seasons.

Before coaching at NIU, Sabock spent five years in Melbourne, Fla., where he was special teams coordinator and inside linebackers coach at Division II Florida Tech, helping the Panthers to the 2016 Division II playoffs.

Before Florida Tech, Sabock coached at Indiana State, where he assisted with the outside linebackers and special teams from 2011-12.

He began his coaching career at Rutgers, where he worked in player development and helped coach the Scarlet Knights' secondary in 2010 and 2011.

Sabock was a two-year letterwinner at defensive back and wide receiver at Elmhurst College. He earned his undergraduate degree in physical education in 2010.

TYLER YELK

Defensive Analyst
Minnesota-Duluth '08
1st Season at Temple

TWITTER: @TylerYelk

Tyler Yelk joined the Temple Football staff as a defensive analyst in January 2019 following one season as an assistant coach at Northern Illinois University under Rod Carey working with the safeties.

Yelk went to NIU after two seasons at South Dakota where he served as co-defensive coordinator and safeties coach.

In 2017, South Dakota ranked first in the Missouri Valley Football Conference and 12th nationally in both sacks and tackles for loss. The previous year, the Coyotes led the MVFC in takeaways. Five defensive players collected All-MVFC honors during his tenure. In Yelk's second season, USD went 8-5, including a win over Bowling Green, and advanced to the second round of the FCS Playoffs.

Yelk coached defensive backs and special teams at Western Illinois in 2013-14 before being named co-defensive coordinator in 2015. In his final season with the Leathernecks, WIU made the FCS playoffs for the first time since 2010 and led the MVFC in both takeaways and interceptions. WIU ranked 11th nationally in turnovers and seventh in interceptions in Yelk's season as the co-coordinator and intercepted a total of 35 passes in his three seasons in Macomb.

Yelk began his coaching career at his alma mater, Minnesota-Duluth, in 2009.

At his first coaching job, Yelk became the only Bulldog to win a National Championship as a player and coach when the Bulldogs claimed the 2010 NCAA Division II title in his second season as an assistant coach at Minnesota-Duluth. Overall, he spent four years as defensive backs coach at his alma mater, with UMD qualifying for the NCAA Playoffs each year. In addition to the 2010 undefeated season, UMD twice advanced to the quarterfinals, while two players were named All-Americans, LB Kiel Fechtelkotter and RB Isaac Odim, and seven earned all-region honors during his tenure. He also served as a special teams coordinator in 2012.

During his playing career, Yelk was an All-American defensive back for three different organizations as a senior. He ended his career as Minnesota-Duluth's career leader in tackles after leading the team in tackles in three seasons, including as a freshman, and during UMD's 2008 undefeated championship season. Yelk was twice named first-team all-NSIC/NCC. Following his senior year, he was selected to play in the 2008 Cactus Bowl, an all-star game for Division II seniors.

Yelk earned a bachelor's degree in exercise science in 2008, and a master's of education degree from UMD in 2012. He and his wife, Elyce, have two daughters, Leighton and Penelope.

BRAD OHRT

Head Strength & Conditioning Coach
Appalachian State '94
1st Season at Temple

TWITTER: @ohrt_brad

Brad Ohrt begins his 23rd season in college football and his first at Temple following eight years at Northern Illinois University as Director of Sports Performance. Ohrt oversaw strength and conditioning efforts of the 17 Huskie Athletics teams and worked primarily with the NIU football program. In 2014, he received the prestigious title of Master Strength & Conditioning Coach by the Collegiate Strength & Conditioning Coaches Association.

During his tenure, the Huskies appeared in six Mid-American Conference championship games (2011-15 and 2018), winning the league title in 2011, '12, '14 and '18. In addition to the team's success, Ohrt has trained two league MVPs and one Heisman Trophy finalist, Jordan Lynch. Sixteen Huskies' players have gone on to play professional football during his tenure and 11 began the 2017 campaign on an NFL or CFL roster.

Before NIU, Ohrt spent three seasons at Western Carolina, where he was director of strength and conditioning from 2008-10. He spent the 2007 football season on the Miami Dolphins' strength staff following tenures at Western Kentucky (2005-07) and Louisiana-Lafayette (2002-05).

Ohrt spent 2001-02 leading the staff at Western Carolina, helping to develop the WCU men's and women's basketball, football and baseball teams as well as seven other programs.

He served as an assistant strength coach at USC from 1998-2001, working primarily with the Trojan men's and women's basketball teams in addition to assisting with the USC football program.

Ohrt's first head strength and conditioning coaching position was at Wingate University in 1997-98. He earned his master's degree from Kansas in 1997, where he was a graduate assistant strength coach for the Jayhawks.

The New Ulm, Minn. native was an All-American offensive lineman at Appalachian State in 1994 and earned All-Southern Conference honors his junior and senior seasons. As a senior, he was named a first-team FCS All-American by The Sports Network and Don Hansen's Football Gazette, and was a third-team Associated Press All-American. He was a three-year letter winner for the Mountaineers and earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science.

He assisted the director with academic eligibility under university, Big Ten conference, and NCAA regulations, and also worked as a student-enrichment and community service liaison between academic support and the football team.

Earning a master's degree in higher education, Vanderlinden also served as a teaching assistant for two semesters at Penn State. In that role, he assisted the instructor with a first-year transition seminar class. He also spent three summers working at the Penn State Sport Camps.

Vanderlinden is a 2013 graduate of Johns Hopkins University, with a degree in political science. While at Johns Hopkins, he was a four-year letterwinner for the football team, helping the Blue Jays to four-straight Centennial Conference championships.

WILDCATS JUMP TO EARLY LEAD AND HOLD OFF OWLS AT THE FINISH

Villanova (1-0)	13	0	0	6	19
Temple (0-1)	3	7	7	0	17

PHILADELPHIA – Football opened up the 2018 season against crosstown opponent Villanova. After a back-and-forth game all afternoon, the Wildcats edged out the Owls 19-17 at Lincoln Financial Field in front of 32,357 fans. Special teams played a huge role in keeping the score close as DE Quincy Roche blocked two kicks and CB Kimere Brown returned the first blocked kick for a touchdown.

KEYS TO THE GAME

>Villanova scored first in the contest with an eight play, 70-yard drive resulting in a touchdown pass from QB Zach Bednarczyk to TE Ryan Bell.

>Temple countered with a 12-play, 42-yard drive capped off by a 46-yard field goal by kicker Aaron Boumerhi to make it 7-3 Villanova.

>Villanova added another score on a 17-yard touchdown pass to WR Brandon Chadbourn. The drive went 11 plays and 76 yards to make it 13-10 Villanova.

>Villanova set up for another field goal but the 31-yard attempt was blocked by DE Quincy Roche. The ball was then scooped up by CB Kimere Brown and returned 76-yards for a touchdown, making the score 13-10 still in favor of Villanova.

>Temple scored first in the second half as QB Frank Nutile took the Owls down 70-yards on 12 plays, finishing off the drive with a 15-yard touchdown pass to WR Isaiah Wright. The Owls took their first lead of the game, 17-13, with 5:45 left in the 3rd quarter.

>Villanova answered with 7:17 left in the 4th quarter. Bednarczyk threw a 30-yard touchdown pass to WR Jarrett McClenton to take the lead. Temple's DE Quincy Roche blocked his second kick of the day to keep the score 19-17.

>Villanova would hang on to the lead after forcing two turnovers late in the game, eventually running out the clock.

GAME NOTES

>Temple team doctor, Dr. Milo Sewards, was the honorary captain for the coin toss. Sewards left the team last year after the game against Navy for a 6-month tour in Afghanistan.

>Temple continues its streak of blocking kicks. They lead the FBS in blocked kicks with 20 since 2014.

>DE Quincy Roche had both blocked kicks. He also recorded a sack and five tackles total, two for loss.

>WR Branden Mack made his first career start. He led the team with seven catches for 78 receiving yards.

>LB Sam Franklin grabbed his first career interception. He also had four tackles.

>FB Rob Ritrovato had his first career catch - a 4-yard reception from Nutile.

>CB Rock Ya-Sin made his first career start in FBS and for Temple. He had five total tackles and one for loss.

>True Freshmen OL Isaac Moore, LB DaeSean Winston, and OL Adam Klein saw action throughout the game.

>Villanova's DB Julian Williams was ejected on the last play of the first quarter for a targeting penalty, resulting in an untimed down.

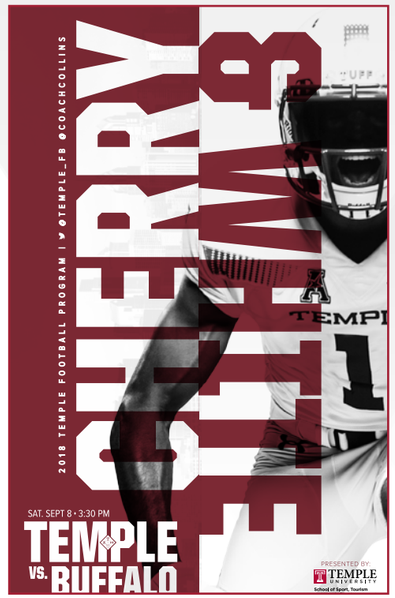
TEMPLE FALLS TO BUFFALO IN SEE-SAW BATTLE TO THE BITTER END

Buffalo (2-0)	6	6	10	14	36
Temple (0-2)	0	7	7	15	29

PHILADELPHIA – In a back-and-forth matchup all afternoon, the Temple Owls and Buffalo Bulls traded scores before the Bulls proved to be too much in the end. Despite two touchdown catches by WR Branden Mack, Temple fell to Buffalo, 36-29, in a game that came down to the last drive of the night.



>Temple began the game by attempting a sky kick that Buffalo recovered at the 50-yard line. Temple stopped the Bulls on a fourth-and-one to begin their first offensive drive.

>After narrowly avoiding a sack, QB Tyree Jackson threw a 33-yard reception to WR Charlie Jones to score first in the game. A missed extra point kept the score at 6-0 Buffalo.

>QB Anthony Russo and QB Todd Centeio came into the game in a variety of packages for the Owls. Russo completed his first collegiate pass to Brodrick Yancy for 18 yards.

>Taking a shot into the end zone, Nutile had his pass picked off on a 50/50 ball intended for WR Ventell Bryant. The interception led to a 7-play, 63-yard drive capped off by a 22-yard run by RB Kevin Marks. Buffalo attempted a 2-pt conversion, but it was picked off by CB Rock Ya-Sin to keep the score at 12-0 Buffalo.

>Jackson was intercepted again by Rock Ya-Sin to give Temple 1:45 seconds to get down the field and score to end the half.

>Nutile and Co. drove 80-yards on 8 plays to get on the board cutting the lead to 12-7. In the final play of the half, Nutile slung a Hail Mary pass into a crowd of Owls and Bulls that was brought down by WR Brandon Mack for the touchdown.

>Temple started out the second half with another scoring drive. Nutile connected with WR Randle Jones on a 44-yard bomb to make the score 14-12 in favor of Temple. It was Jones' first career touchdown catch.

>Nutile threw another interception deep in Owls' territory to set up Buffalo for a 1-yard touchdown run by Kevin Marks to make it 19-14 Buffalo in the 3rd Q.

>After some back-and-forth, Buffalo drove down and kicker Adam Mitcheson hit a 46-yard field goal to make it 22-14 Buffalo.

>Temple backed up Buffalo into their own endzone and forced them to punt. Branden Mack blocked the Buffalo punt which was recovered by Ty Mason in the endzone for a touchdown. The Owls then set up for a two-point conversion that was completed on an end around reverse pass from Bryant to TE Kenny Yeboah. The game was then tied 22-22.

>Buffalo then countered with an 8-play, 58-yard drive that resulted in a 5-yard touchdown catch by WR Antonio Nunn to make it 29-22 Buffalo.

>Temple answered the Buffalo score with a scoring drive of its own. The Owls drove 8-plays, 75-yards in 2:52 to tie the game at 29. Nutile threw a 3rd-and-goal fade to the corner of the endzone to Mack who brought it in for the score, his second touchdown of the day.

>Buffalo came back down the field 81-yards and scored again on a 29-yard catch-and-run by WR Anthony Johnson. With 0:59 to go, the score was 36-29 Buffalo.

>In an attempt to come down and win the game, Nutile was strip-sacked at midfield, sealing the win for Buffalo.

TEMPLE DOMINATES IN WIN OVER MARYLAND

COLLEGE PARK, Md. – Temple Football bounced back in a big way Saturday with an impressive win over previously unbeaten Maryland, 35-14. The Owls dominated the game on both sides of the ball on their way to a huge road win against the Big 10 school. Temple finished with 80-plays for 429 yards compared to Maryland's 52-plays for 195 yards.

KEYS TO THE GAME
>QB Anthony Russo started the game for Temple as QB Frank Nutile was held out due to injury. QB Todd Centeio also rotated in throughout the game.

>The Owls struck first on a 4th-and-8 from Maryland's 34-yard line. Centeio took the direct snap on a fake punt and rolled right looking to throw. WR Freddie Johnson caught the pass down the Temple sideline and scampered into the endzone untouched. It was Centeio's first career touchdown throw and Johnson's first career touchdown catch. The quarter would end 7-0 Temple.

>Also in the first quarter, Michael Dogbe recorded 1.5 sacks, Zack Mesday had one sack, and Jimmy Hogan had a half sack.

>On a 3rd-and-16 from the Temple 43 yard-line, Russo completed a 40-yard pass to WR Brodrick Yancy to keep the drive alive. This led to a one-yard touchdown on a dive play by DT Freddie Booth-Lloyd. Booth-Lloyd doesn't play offense often, but he has seen action in goal line situations throughout practice. With 6:38 to go in the half, Temple led 14-0.

>With 3:23 left in the half, Maryland's Darnell Savage picked off Russo and returned it for a touchdown to make the score 14-7.

>Temple answered quickly with a long drive and a touchdown. The 11-play, 65-yard drive was capped off by a 2-yard touchdown by FB Rob Ritrovato. The Owls scored with seven seconds left in the half and took a 21-7 lead into halftime.

>To start the second half, Temple marched down the field and scored on a 47-yard catch and run by TE Kenny Yeboah from Russo. It was his first career touchdown catch and Russo's first career touchdown throw. Just three minutes into the second half, the Owls led 28-7.

>The Owls continued to shut down the Terrapins on both sides of the ball. Headed into the fourth quarter, Temple had run 67 plays for 387 yards compared to Maryland's 34 plays for 109 yards. Dogbe forced another fumble and eventually the Terrapins would turn the ball over on downs with 11:54 left in the 4th quarter.

>Maryland blocked a Connor Bowler punt and returned it 27-yards for a touchdown to cut the Owls lead to 28-14 with 8:21 to play.

>Maryland got the ball back and was eyeing another shot at the endzone on Temple's 22-yard line. LB Shaun Bradley ended the Terps threat with a 78-yard pick-six to seal the victory.

>Owls CB Linwood Crump came up with another TU interception to close out the contest.

GAME NOTES
>Temple dominated time of possession by more than 10 minutes, amassing 36:33 compared to 23:27 for Maryland.

>Temple's stingy defense only allowed the Terrapins to convert 1-of-12 third down conversions, forcing Maryland to punt eight times.

>RB Ryquell Armstead rushed for 118 yards on 26 carries, with his longest being a 25-yard run. This was his second straight 100+ yard game this season.

>Dogbe recorded seven tackles, 2.5 sacks, 3.5 tackles-for-loss, and two forced fumbles.

>The Owls had more tackles-for-loss (nine for 38 yards) in this game than they did previously all season.

DARKSIDE DOMINATES IN CONFERENCE WIN

PHILADELPHIA – The Temple Owls opened up Conference play at home in front of 24,217 fans with a commanding win over Tulsa, 31-17. Temple forced a season-high five turnovers, three interceptions, four forced fumbles, and two fumble recoveries in the win. RB Ryquell Armstead rushed for 108 yards and recorded his first career sack while playing DE. LB Shaun Bradley led the Owls with 11 tackles and had a fake punt run for 28 yards.

KEYS TO THE GAME
>The Owls took the opening drive down to the 15-yard line before a batted ball at the line was picked off by Tulsa.

>The Owls then responded with a pick of their own. Ty Mason jumped a pass and returned the interception 36-yards for the touchdown, giving Temple a 7-0 lead.

>Tulsa countered with a 3-yard touchdown run by Cory Taylor. The drive went 16-plays and 75-yards. Temple would get the ball back with 0:36 left in the first quarter.

>The Owls started out the second quarter with a long pass from Anthony Russo to WR Randle Jones for 41 yards to the four-yard line. Three plays later, Russo ran the ball in from the one to make it 14-7, Temple.

>Temple forced another turnover on the following Tulsa drive. Rock Ya-Sin grabbed an interception on a one-on-one deep pass, his second pick of the season.

>After a defensive stop, the Owls would march down the field 66 yards on seven plays in just 2:38. Armstead scored for the first time this season on a 22-yard carry to push the lead to 21-7.

>In the opening drive of the second half, Quincy Roche forced two fumbles. The second fumble was recovered by DT Karamo Dioubate and returned 50-yards for a touchdown to make the score 28-10 Temple.

>In the opening drive of the fourth quarter, Russo's pass was bobbled and picked off by Tulsa which led to a 14-play 53-yard drive and a score to make it 28-17 with 9:58 left to play.

>Tulsa got the ball back, but Temple responded with a strip sack by LB Sam Franklin which was recovered by LB Chapelle Russell. Fellow LB Shaun Bradley was then able to extend the ensuing offensive drive for Temple on a fourth down fake punt direct snap that he ran for 28 yards to the Tulsa 16 yard line.

>The recovered fumble led to a 33-yard field goal by kicker Will Mobley to make it 31-17 Temple.

>On the following drive, the Owls forced another turnover, their fifth of the game. SAF Benny Walls intercepted the ball to seal the game for Temple.

GAME NOTES
>Ryquell Armstead became the ninth Owl to surpass 2,000 career rushing yards. His TD was the 22nd rushing touchdown of his career, tying him for fourth in school history. This was his third consecutive game with 100 rushing yards, the last Owl to do so was Bernard Pierce in 2011.

>Armstead is the third player ever to have 100-yards rushing and a sack in a game. The other two are Anthony Samuel (9/1/2011 for Bowling Green) and Vic Hall (11/29/08 for Virginia).

>Karamo Dioubate's fumble return for a touchdown was Temple's first in exactly a year. DE Jacob Martin returned a fumble 44-yards for a touchdown against USF on 9/21/17.

>The last time Temple forced five turnovers in a single game was at Cincinnati on September 12, 2016.

>This was the second consecutive game the Owls scored as many defensive touchdowns as they allowed their opponent to score.

TEMPLE DROPS BACK-AND-FORTH BATTLE TO BOSTON COLLEGE

Temple (2-3)	14	7	7	7	35
Boston Col. (4-1)	13	18	7	7	45

CHESTNUT HILL, Mass. – Despite a career day of 24-carries, 171-yards and four-touchdowns from RB Ryquell Armstead, the Owls lost to ACC foe Boston College 45-35 in front of 40,111 fans at Alumni Stadium. Temple is now 2-3 (1-0 AAC) on the season.

KEYS TO THE GAME

>Boston College struck first on a 7-yard catch and throw to make it 7-0 BC.

>On the ensuing drive RB Ryquell Armstead ran 75-yards for a touchdown to tie the game.

>The following kickoff, Temple was called offsides, but instead of taking the penalty, BC opted for a re-kick. This worked out in the Owls favor as FB Rob Ritrovato forced a fumble on the re-kick and LB Isaiah Graham-Mobley scooped it and scored to put Temple up 14-7.

>BC would score again on a 16-yard touchdown catch. The Eagles kicker would miss the extra point to keep Temple ahead 14-13.

>Temple countered the score after some back-and-forth with Armstead's second rushing touchdown of the day. It was all set up by a third-and-one deep pass by Anthony Russo to Ventell Bryant that he grabbed with one hand while being interfered with by a defender. Bryant came up with the pass and landed on the one-yard line, setting up Armstead for the walk-in score to put Temple up 21-13.

>Armstead and BC's A.J. Dillon continued to duel on the ground as Dillon rushed for a 52-yard touchdown and converted a two-point conversion to tie the game at 21.

>BC picked off Russo and brought the ball all the way to the Owls' 9-yard line to set up a Dillon touchdown to give the Eagles a 28-21 lead with three minutes to play in the half. The Owls later would surrender a field goal to end the half down 31-21.

>With 9:22 left in the third quarter, BC scored another touchdown on a reverse pass to extend its lead to 38-21.

>Armstead got on the board for the third time on a one-yard touchdown run to cut the deficit to 38-28 with 6:31 left in the third.

>Armstead continued to feast on the Eagles' defense going for his fourth score of the game on a one-yard carry to close the gap to 38-35 with 9:02 left in the game.

>The Owls attempted to rally back and take the lead, but fell short on a handful of drives. BC would score a one-yard touchdown with 3:11 left in the contest to push the lead to 45-35.

GAME NOTES

>Ryquell Armstead now holds sole position of fourth for career rushing touchdowns as a Temple Owl with 26.

>With 100-yards rushing, Armstead now has four-straight 100-yard rushing games. The last time a single Owl rushed for 100-yards in four straight games was Tanardo Sharpes from Sept. 21-Oct. 19, 2002.

>This was the first time in Armstead's career that he rushed for four touchdowns in a game.

>Isaiah Wright had his first 100-yard receiving game this season. He made seven catches for 114 yards.

>It was the fifth straight game the Owls have had a non-offensive touchdown.

OFFENSE EXPLODES WHILE DEFENSE THROTTLES ECU IN TEMPLE'S LARGEST MARGIN OF VICTORY VS. FBS OPPONENT

ECU (2-3)	0	3	0	3	6
Temple (3-3)	14	21	7	7	49

PHILADELPHIA – In the second conference game of the season, the Temple Owls easily defeated the ECU Pirates 49-6 in front of 26,681 fans at Lincoln Financial Field. QB Anthony Russo threw for four touchdown passes and the Owls didn't let up a touchdown in the game. It is the Owls' largest margin of victory ever against an FBS opponent. The Owls are now 3-3 (2-0 AAC).

This game proved Temple's sheer force when firing on all cylinders. In all three wins, the Owls never trailed and, in this one, it was a runaway from the get-go. Despite not creating a turnover, a rare occurrence for the ball-hawking Owls, Temple forced ECU to punt 11 times after only converting on 4-of-18 on third downs. The Owls had their best field position of the season so far, and capitalized by hanging points all afternoon. The Owls also had their best day in the air this season as Russo completed 21-of-25 for 254 yards and four touchdowns. The Doylestown, Pa. native had as many touchdowns today as incompletions. RB Ryquell Armstead got into the end zone for the third game in a row and rushed for 91 yards on the day.

The Owls proved they are a top-tier American Athletic Conference team with the statement win coupled with a dominating victory against Tulsa. Russo remains undefeated in home starts and continues to gain confidence as he lets the ball fly more in each game. He has spread the ball around the last two games, connecting with eight different receivers against BC and 11 today against ECU.

HIGHLIGHTS

>Temple has scored a non-offensive touchdown in every single game this season. This week WR Isaiah Wright returned a punt 59 yards for a touchdown. It was his first of the season.

>True freshman Sean Ryan led the team with four catches for 57 yards and his first career touchdown.

>Russo threw a touchdown to four different receivers, becoming the first QB to do so since Frank Nutile against Navy last season.

>Temple was the first team to hold ECU without a touchdown in AAC action in the league's history.

>This was Temple's largest margin of victory against any opponent since beating Delaware State, 59-0, on Sept. 20, 2014.

HOW IT HAPPENED

>Following an interception on its first drive, the Owls battled back and forced the Pirates to punt. Temple drove down the field 80 yards on seven plays to score first. The score came on blown coverage by ECU and a 24-yard touchdown catch from Russo to Ryan.

>On the next drive, the Owls forced a turnover on downs to start with the ball in ECU territory. The drive would result in a seven-yard touchdown by WR Branden Mack from Russo.

>The Owls would force a three-and-out and get the ball back to start the second quarter. Russo started the drive by connecting with Ryan on a 12-yard pass, and Armstead would follow that up with a 10-yard run to get the ball to the ECU two yard line. It would take two more rushes for Armstead to cross the goal line, but he eventually would to make the score 21-0 Temple with 14:00 left to play in the half.

>Temple would force a three-and-out as ECU got set to punt to Wright, who fielded it at the Temple 41 and returned it 59 yards for the score.

>The second half began slow for both teams until Russo hit WR Randle Jones on a deep 31-yard pass for a touchdown to extend the lead to 42-3.

TEMPLE HALTS NAVY 24-17, REMAINS PERFECT IN AAC PLAY

ANNAPOLIS, Md.- The Temple Owls continue rolling through conference play as they took down the Navy Midshipmen, 24-17, in front of 30,106 fans at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium. The Owls are now 4-3 on the season and 3-0 in American Athletic Conference play.

Temple's passing offense clashed with Navy's triple-option run game, and the air attack came out on top. Despite time of possession being lopsided in favor of Navy, 33:07-26:53, Temple took advantage of the time they had on the field and worked efficiently and methodically to put up 24 points in the win. The Owls outgained the Midshipmen 409-284 and also had 21 first downs to Navy's 18 in the victory.

KEYS TO THE GAME

>Temple and Navy traded fumbles in Navy territory before a 10-minute Navy drive resulted in the first score of the game, a field goal that put them up at the beginning of the second quarter.

>Temple answered in the ensuing drive with a nine-play, 77-yard drive that was capped off by Raynor's first career touchdown, a 15-yard run into the endzone to make the score 7-3 Temple.

>Navy answered with their first touchdown of the game, a one-yard run to make it 10-7 Navy.

>Neither team would make any more noise for the remainder of the first half.

>In the first series of the second half, Navy broke a long 45-yard run to get all the way to the Temple 30-yard line. Navy would run it three more times, the final being a 12-yard touchdown to make it 17-7 Navy.

>A long return by WR Isaiah Wright set up the Owls on the Navy 43-yard line to begin their first offensive possession of the second half. A pitch pass from Russo to RB Jager Gardner went another 20-yards to get further into Midshipmen territory. The Owls however had to settle for a field goal. Will Mobley's 31-yard attempt was good to make the score 17-10 Navy.

>Temple then forced Navy to punt and started their drive on their own 45-yard line. Russo connected with Bryant for a nine-yard catch. After a Gardner rush for five yards, Russo hit Bryant again with a one-on-one deep ball for 40 yards, bringing the Owls into the redzone. The Owls would not come up empty-handed in this trip to the redzone as Ritrovato scored on a 1-yard rushing touchdown to even the score at 17-17 with 5:53 left to play in the third quarter.

>Both teams exchanged punts the rest of the third quarter and into the fourth quarter. Temple forced a turnover on downs as the Midshipmen creeped into field goal range. The Owls didn't waste any time on the next drive. Russo continued to feed Bryant and on the first play of the drive, they connected for a 62-yard touchdown. Bryant beat the entire right side of the secondary and Russo hit him perfectly in stride for the go-ahead touchdown. The Owls took the lead, 24-17, with 9:14 left to play in the game.

>Temple forced a three-and-out and got the ball back on their own 20-yard line with 8:13 left to play. Temple marched down the field again, but a Russo pass was intercepted by Navy on a one-on-one ball in the endzone. Navy would attempt a game tying drive with 2:06 left to play in the game. The stingy Owl defense would force the Midshipmen to turn the ball over on downs and Temple would take over on the Navy 20 yard line with 1:40 left to play.

GAME NOTES

>WR Ventell Bryant has caught a pass in 42 straight games. He is tied for the longest active streak in the FBS.

>Redshirt sophomore RB Tyliek Raynor scored his first career touchdown.

>Temple has allowed less than 20 points in five of seven games this season.

>Temple has a takeaway in every game except a 49-6 win against ECU.

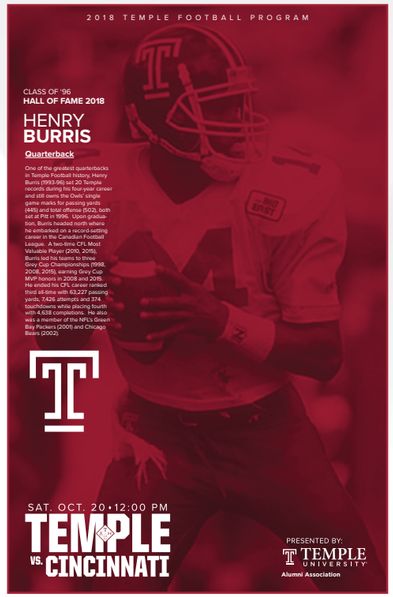
TEMPLE WINS OVERTIME THRILLER VS. PREVIOUSLY UNDEFEATED AND #20 CINCINNATI



PHILADELPHIA – The Temple Owls came back in the final minute of play to force overtime and take down #20 Cincinnati, 24-17, in front of a Homecoming crowd of 33,026 fans at Lincoln Financial Field. This was Temple's first win against an AP Top 25 team since defeating #19 Navy in the 2016 Conference championship game. It was the first time Temple has won in overtime since October 12, 2013.

The contest was a defensive battle throughout and featured six turnovers. The Owls had great field position to start the game and jumped out to a 10-0 lead, but up until the final quarter the offense was nowhere to be found. Late game heroics from QB Anthony Russo and the offense led to a seven-play, 75-yard drive in just 1:48 to tie the game at 17-17. After marching down the field as the clock ticked toward 0:00, Russo hit WR Branden Mack for a wide open 20-yard touchdown to force overtime.

Cincinnati won the toss in overtime and elected to play defense first. The Owls made them pay, scoring on just the third play, a 25-yard throw from Russo to WR Isaiah Wright to make it 24-17 Temple. Russo threw for 237 total yards, 172 of which came in the fourth quarter and overtime. The Owl defense held strong and a botched snap on second down forced Cincinnati to air it out on third-and-36, resulting in a game-sealing interception by LB Shaun Bradley.

All afternoon the Owl defense applied pressure up the middle to deny runs inside and get to the quarterback. The stingy Owl defense only allowed 111 yards passing and sacked the quarterback four times. It became a battle of flipped fields as both teams forced one another to punt eight times.

How it Happened

>The Owls forced a turnover on their first defensive series. DT Michael Dogbe burst through the middle of the line and chased down the Bearcats' QB to force a strip sack deep in Cincinnati territory. The ball was recovered by DE Jimmy Hogan at the Cincinnati 11-yard line. The Bearcats would hold the Owls to a field goal.

>On the following play, FB Rob Ritrovato forced a fumble on the kick return that was recovered by NKL Sam Franklin on the Cincinnati 16 yard-line. The Owls set themselves up with prime field position because of their ability to take the ball away from Cincinnati. Theys capitalized on their prime field position by getting into the endzone on a 16-yard pass from QB Anthony Russo to WR Randle Jones. Jones was able to corral the ball while making a diving play and tapping his right toe in bounds of the score.

>Cincinnati then capitalized on a Russo interception and started with the ball inside the Temple 40 yard-line with 6:17 left to play in the first quarter. The Bearcats' RB Michael Warren rushed the ball three times, the third being a 24-yard run for a touchdown.

>The Bearcats scored again y forcing the Owls to punt. After starting on the Temple 44 yard-line, Cincinnati kicker, Cole Smith, hit a 44-yard field goal.

>Cincinnati missed field goal attempts on their next three possessions, proving to be detrimental late in the game.

>Russo and the offense put together multiple drives in the fourth quarter, but two in a row ended in interceptions. The Owls' defense would hold strong in the fourth, giving the offense one more chance with 2:37 left in the game and 75 yards to go for a game-tying score. Russo arched the team down the field before finding Mack on a delayed route up the right sideline for the game-tying score. The momentum stayed with the Owls heading into overtime when on the third play, Russo connected with Wright for the game winning score.

>After Cincinnati botched a snap on second down, the Bearcats were staring at a third-and-36 with game on the line. Forced to throw it long, LB Shaun Bradley was able to intercept the lofty pass and solidify the victory for Temple.

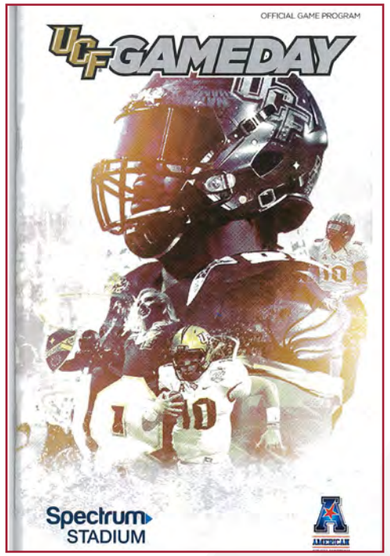
OWLS AND KNIGHTS GO TOE-TO-TOE IN SLUGFEST FOR EAST DIVISION LEAD

Temple (5-4)	17	17	0	6	40
UCF (8-0)	14	14	14	10	52

ORLANDO - In front of 41,153 fans at Spectrum Stadium the Temple Owls lost a shootout to the #9 UCF Knights 52-40 in the highest scoring matchup of the season. Temple is now 5-4 (4-1 AAC).

The offensive showdown featured back-and-forth scoring from QB Anthony Russo and UCF QB McKenzie Milton. Russo threw for four touchdowns and rushed for another. The team's combined for 1,300 total yards, with Temple setting a school single-game record of 670. Temple outscored UCF 34-28 in the first two quarters, but a slower start to the second half and few costly penalties left the Owls empty handed.



How It Happened

>Both the Owls and Knights came out gunning in the first half scoring a combined 62 points as Temple went into halftime up 34-28. The Owls scored first on their first drive of the game on a 41-yard field goal from kicker Will Mobley. UCF attempted to counter with a field goal of their own in the next drive, but DT Dan Archibong blocked the kick giving the Owls the ball back while retaining the lead.

>UCF forced a three-and-out that led to a touchdown to give UCF the lead 7-3. Temple took the lead back, 10-7, on an 18-yard touchdown pass from QB Anthony Russo to WR Branden Mack. On the ensuing drive, UCF scored to retake the lead 14-10. UCF fired back with another touchdown to cut the lead to 14-10. Three plays later, Russo hit WR Randle Jones for a 70-yard touchdown. It was Jones' fourth touchdown of the season and third for over 30-yards.

>The Owls forced the Knights' first punt of the game and capitalized by driving all the way into field goal territory. A running into the kicker penalty by UCF forced a first down and the Owls drove down inside the five yard-line. The Owls set up for a field goal again but instead ran a fake and Russo scampered into the endzone to push the Temple lead to 24-14. Milton and the UCF offense countered and took the ball 75 yards and scored on fourth down on a QB keeper by Milton to make it 24-21 Owls.

>The Owls answered with a 55-yard drive that resulted in a 27-yard field goal by Mobley to push the score to 27-21 Temple. Both teams traded punts before UCF scored on a 10-play 73-yard drive to give UCF the lead 28-27 with 1:43 left in the first half. The Owl offense was able to string together a six-play 64-yard drive capped off by a 15-yard touchdown pass from Russo to WR Ventell Bryant. Temple took a 34-28 lead into the second half.

UCF scored twice in the third quarter to take their largest lead of the game 42-34.

>Temple struck first in the fourth quarter with an interception by SAF Delvon Randall that gave Temple the ball back with 13:41 left to play in the fourth quarter. Russo-and-company drove down the field 67-yards on eight plays led in part by tough runs by Russo and RB Ryquell Armstead. The drive was finished off by Bryant on an eight-yard touchdown catch. The Owls attempted a two-point conversion to tie the game but RB Jager Gardner was stopped short on the one yard line, UCF held the lead 42-40 with 9:44 left in the game.

>UCF put together another quick scoring drive to push the score to 49-40 with 8:16 left in the fourth quarter. The Owls attempted to make a comeback only down nine. Temple got all the way to the UCF 30 yard-line but couldn't convert on a fourth down and score. UCF would add a field goal and the game would end 52-40.

OWLS RIDE ARMSTEAD TO SIX TDS IN TEXAS SHOOTOUT

Temple (6-4)	14	14	21	10	59
Houston (7-3)	7	7	21	14	49

HOUSTON - In front of 30,862 at TDECU Stadium in the Lone Star State, the Temple Owls beat the Houston Cougars 59-49 in the cross-divisional matchup that featured a lot of scoring. The Owls are now 6-4 and 4-1 in the American Athletic Conference and are officially bowl eligible for the fifth consecutive year.

Temple got out to a quick lead and never trailed in the contest. RB Ryquell Armstead had a career game, rushing 30 times for 210 yards and a career high six touchdowns. Armstead has run for four or more touchdowns twice this season, the first Owl to accomplish this feat. It was also his fifth 100-yard rushing game of the season. His six rushing touchdowns is second on the Temple single game list behind Montel Harris' seven rushing TDs against Army in 2012.

The Owls had 200-yards passing and 200-yards rushing combined in consecutive games for the first time in program history. The Owls also had the highest combined point total since beating SMU 59-49 in 2013. Senior WR Ventell Bryant is now the all-time leading receiver in Temple history with 2,319 yards, surpassing Willie Marshall's 2,272-yards.

How It Happened

>The Owls were firing on all cylinders and came out hot in the first quarter. The Owls started on defense and forced the Cougars to punt in their first offensive series. The punt was blocked by CB Ty Mason and recovered by WR Branden Mack deep in Houston territory at the Cougar eight yard-line. Armstead scored on his second rush of the day from five yards out to give Temple an early 7-0 lead.

>On the next Houston drive, the Owls recovered a fumble and took the ball 66 yards on 12 plays to go up 14-0 with 8:34 left in the first quarter. The drive was kept alive on a fourth-and-five from the Houston 35 yard-line. The Owls ran a fake punt pass executed on an eight yard pass from QB Todd Centeio to WR Freddie Johnson. Armstead finished the drive off with a four-yard touchdown, his second of the day.

>The Cougars put one score on the board and the first quarter ended 14-7 Temple.

>Temple received the ball to start the second half and wasted no time scoring again. The Owls took 12 plays to go 70-yards in just 4:53 and finished the drive off with an eight-yard touchdown by Rob Ritrovato to push the score to 21-7 Temple.

>Houston answered on the next drive to make it 21-14 with 10:12 left to play in the second quarter. The Owls took a 28-14 lead into halftime after the third Armstead touchdown, this one from two yards out.

>Armstead's onslaught continued in the second half as he scored his longest touchdown of the game, a 33-yard rush on the third play of the half, which brought the score to 35-14 Temple.

>Houston scored back-to-back touchdowns and brought it to a one score game, 35-28 Temple. The Owls answered by taking the ball down to the one yard-line and giving it to DT Freddie Booth-Lloyd for a touchdown, his third rushing touchdown of the season to make it 42-28 Temple.

>Armstead added his sixth and final touchdown from six yards out at the start of the fourth quarter to make the score 56-35.

>Houston would score twice more in hopes of a comeback, but Temple would bleed the clock and eventually a field goal by Will Mobley would push the lead to 59-49 Temple with 1:41 left to play in the game. The Owls' defense would hold strong in the final drive, denying the chance for a Cougar comeback. An interception by SAF Delvon Randall sealed the game and the win.

PHILADELPHIA – In front of 29,029 fans at Lincoln Financial Field, the Temple Owls overcame a 17-0 halftime deficit to shock the USF Bulls 27-17 on Senior Day. Temple moves to 7-4 (6-1 in the AAC) heading into the final week of the regular season. Nine of 19 players that walked on Senior Day started the game for Temple.

The last time Temple had a comeback of 17-points or more was in 2007 against Akron. The Owls were down 20-3 after three quarters in that contest, and scored 21 unanswered points to win the game 24-20.

The Owls defense and special teams paved the way to victory in the second half. Temple forced five turnovers and scored 20 points in those key areas to propel them to the win.

How it Happened

>Temple couldn't seem to get the offense clicking in the first half and the defense played well, but not up to full potential. The full force of the defense and special teams wouldn't come out until the second half.

>The Owls forced USF to punt four times, but Temple had to punt five times in the first 30 minutes of play. USF scored its first TD on its first drive. The Bulls scored again on a 35-yard field goal to go up 10-0 right at the start of the second quarter. They scored once more before the half ended on a one-yard TD.

>After forcing USF to punt on its first drive of the second half, Temple drove 69 yards on 10 plays for its first score. After multiple tries from the one-yard line, RB Ryquell Armstead trucked his way into the endzone to make it 17-7.

>On the second play of the following drive, SAF Delvon Randall grabbed his third interception of the season on a one-handed jump ball on Temple's 33 yard-line. The first play of Temple's ensuing drive USF countered with a pick of its own. USF then fumbled the ball on a handoff with DE Quincy Roche recovering to give the Owls the ball back on their own 40 yard-line. After the ping-ponging of turnovers, Temple drove the ball 43 yards on eight plays and Will Mobley connected on a 33-yard FG.

>The Owls forced the Bulls to punt on their next possession. QB Anthony Russo then hit WR Brodrick Yancy with a 28-yard pass to end the quarter. Russo completed two more passes for 18 and 12 yards, respectively, to get the Owls into the red zone. The drive set up Mobley for a 36-yard field goal.

>Temple forced a quick three-and-out on USF's following drive and forced the Bulls to punt. WR Isaiah Wright fielded the punt, started to go right and then cut back hard left with a host of blockers ahead. Wright was able to get to the corner and up the sideline for a 73-yard TD.

>On the ensuing kickoff, Mobley kicked the ball directly at a USF player in front of him on the 50-yard line, the ball bounced off the Bull and NKL DaeSean Winston recovered the pegged onside kick to give Temple the ball on its own 47-yard line. Although the Owls couldn't capitalize on the onside kick, the momentum was fully on Temple's side.

>The Owls defense held strong and forced the Bulls to punt again with 5:15 left to play. Temple would then begin to gain ground and bleed the clock. Russo hit Ventell Bryant for a 27-yard pass play to get the ball across midfield. Russo and Armstead then ran the ball as the clock ticked. Temple got all the way down to the USF 31 yard-line and elected to punt on the short field in order to pin the Bulls.

>USF set up on their own 10-yard line to begin its drive with 1:44 left. On the first play, DE Dana Levine flew around the edge to get to USF QB Blake Barnett for a strip sack. The ball was on the ground and bobbled and rolled into the endzone before LB Chapelle Russell scooped it up for the game sealing score. The Owls strengthened their lead to 27-17, with 1:33 left.

>The game would end on the next drive after a mis-run route led to an easy interception for CB Linwood Crump.

EAST HARTFORD, Conn. - In front of 18,203 fans at Pratt and Whitney Stadium, the Temple Owls beat the UConn Huskies 57-7 in the final regular season game of the season. The Owls end their regular season 8-4 and 7-1 in the American Athletic Conference. Temple's 7-1 conference record is its best since 2016.

The Owls dominated every facet of the game and scored 50 unanswered points after both teams traded touchdowns to begin the game. Temple scored a season-high 40 points in the first half despite only running 26 total plays. The Owls capitalized on stellar field position throughout the game and scored on all seven of their redzone possessions. The Owls forced four turnovers in the game, which helped set up the excellent field position. Temple scored in all three phases of the game for the third time this season and the second game in a row. The Owls' stingy defense allowed 213 total yards and the offense amassed 516 yards, 223 in the air and 293 on the ground. Temple only ran 52 plays compared to the Huskies' 81. Nine different Owls rushed the ball and nine TU players caught a pass.

This game marked the highest point differential this season in an American Athletic Conference Game. It is also the third highest point differential ever in an American Athletic Conference Game. This was also the highest point differential against an FBS school in Temple Football history.

How it Happened

>The Owls started the game and struck first in the contest. Temple drove down the field on the first drive and scored, and didn't look back from there. QB Todd Centeio pitched the ball to WR Isaiah Wright who ran it in for an 18-yard touchdown.

>Temple wouldn't allow another scoring play for UConn the rest of the half. Meanwhile the Owls scored 31 unanswered before the half ended. Following the UConn score, Wright received the kickoff from the one-yard line and returned it 99-yards untouched for a touchdown.

>After forcing the Huskies to turn the ball over on downs, the Owls drove 92 yards on six plays to score another touchdown. A three-yard run by Centeio stretched the lead to 20-7.

>The Owls and Huskies traded interceptions on the next two drives and Temple would take over on the UConn 36 yardline after an interception by LB Todd Jones. With prime field position the Owls would capitalize on the turnover and score on a five-yard touchdown reception by TE Chris Myarick from Centeio.

>Temple recovered an errant snap by UConn on the first play of the next drive and took over on the UConn four yardline. The Owls turned the excellent field position into an 18-yard field goal by kicker Will Mobley.

>The Owls forced a third turnover in a row on the ensuing UConn drive. After inside pressure forced the UConn QB to flush the pocket, CB Christian Braswell picked off a lofted pass and returned it eight yards for a touchdown.

>With 50 seconds left in the half, QB Frank Nutile and the offense drove down the field 54-yards and set Mobley up for an 18-yard field goal to extend the lead to 40-7.

>The onslaught continued in the second half on Temple's first possession. RB Jager Gardner took a 26-yard rush up the middle of the defense to the house to make it 47-7 in favor of the Owls. SAF Benny Walls also had an interception in the third that took some offensive momentum away from the Huskies.

>In the Owls first possession of the fourth quarter, the Owls platooned rushing between Centeio, RB Jonny Forrest, and WR Travon Williams. The Owls drove 70-yards and Williams finished off the drive with a 10-yard touchdown run.

Notes

>The Owls scored in all three phases of the game for the third time this season.

TEMPLE SUFFERS SECOND HALF COLLAPSE

Temple (8-5)	13	14	0	0	27
Duke (8-5)	7	14	21	14	56

SHREVEPORT, La. - In front of 27,492 fans at Independence Stadium the Temple Owls fell to the Duke Blue Devils 56-27 in the 43rd Independence Bowl to finish the season 8-5.

Temple and Duke traded scores throughout the first 30 minutes with the 48 points making for the highest combined scoring first half in Temple bowl history. The Owls couldn't get much going in the second half and were unable to keep the Blue Devils out of the endzone, resulting in a lopsided victory for Duke.

How it Happened
>After starting the game on offense with a quick three-and-out, the Owls set up on defense. On the third play of the drive, Duke completed a 62-yard pass to get all the way to the Owls' three yardline. The Blue Devils eventually punched it in on a QB keeper to take the first lead of the game 7-0.

>Isaiah Wright took the ensuing kickoff 74-yards to set up the offense on the Duke 26 yardline. After converting a third down on a pass from QB Anthony Russo to WR Brodrick Yancy, Russo took the ball 15 yards on a read-option into the endzone to even the score 7-7.

>On the following drive, Duke looked to be stringing together a productive drive before SAF Delvon Randall picked off a dump pass and took it 52-yards for a touchdown. The extra point was missed and the Owls took a 13-7 lead after one quarter.

>On Duke's first drive of the second quarter, CB Linwood Crump nabbed an interception on an under thrown ball to give the Owls the ball back on their own 42 yardline.

>Russo and company put together an efficient 10-play, 58-yard drive capped off by a touchdown by FB Rob Ritrovato. His one yard punch-in made the score 20-7 Temple with 10:25 left to play in the half.

>The Blue Devils answered with a touchdown of their own on the next drive. Duke went 70-yards on seven plays and scored on a 34-yard touchdown pass to close the gap, 20-14. Temple started the next drive on its own 27 yardline. Russo hit WR Sean Ryan on three separate passes for 12, 5, and then 27 yards to get the Owls into the redzone. After an 11-yard and three-yard run by RB Jager Gardner, Russo connected with Yancy on a crossing route for an 8-yard touchdown to put Temple ahead 27-14.

>Duke answered once again with a 22-yard catch and throw for a touchdown to keep it a one score game, 27-21 with 1:11 left to play in the half. The half ended 27-21.

>Duke scored on its first three drives of the second half to regain and push the lead to 42-27. Temple couldn't get much going in the third quarter in order to counter the high-powered Blue Devils' offense.

>After putting together a drive to get to the four yardline before the end of the third quarter, the Blue Devils scored again at the start of the final quarter to make the score 49-27.

>Duke added one more touchdown in the fourth quarter to account for the final score, 56-27.

Notes
>The Owls scored the most points in program history this season.

>Wright had the longest kick return in Temple bowl history with a 74-yard return.

>Randall's 52-yard pick-six was the longest interception return in Temple bowl history, he also had seven tackles.

>Randall and DT Michael Dogbe now hold the record for most games played as an Owl with 54. Randall played in 54 consecutive games.

HISTORY

The Temple University football program will play its 121st season in 2019. For more than 35 years, the Owls have been the only major college football team in the Philadelphia region. That was not the case at the turn of the century.

The Early Years

Football at Temple first planted its roots in 1894, a decade after Russell Conwell founded the night school on North Broad Street. Nearly every college in and around Philadelphia had some sort of football squad at that time, though it may be a stretch to call them organized. The serious football powers of the east included Pennsylvania, Princeton, Harvard and Yale.

Temple's 11-man squad was technically a part of the school's Physical Education Department. The 1894 team was organized by physical education instructor Charles M. Williams, who also coached the basketball team. The Owls won their first game that fall against Philadelphia Dental College, 14-6.
There is almost no record of the first two decades of Temple football. The games were rarely reported in the newspapers, and the opposition usually consisted of small schools such as Pratt Institute or Pennsylvania Military College (now Widener University). After the turn of the century, the Owls began playing regularly against city schools La Salle and Saint Joseph's.

The school mascot had already been established though, along with the school colors—Cherry and White. For many years, the football team had no official home field. Eventually it settled into Vernon Park, a spacious green located on the city limits beyond Germantown.

The most notable person associated with the Temple football program prior to World War I was Elwood Geiges, who was supposed to coach the varsity team in 1917. But the Owls forfeited every regular game on the schedule that season because of the war. Late that fall, the varsity squad matched up with the freshman squad in a game to benefit the war effort. The contest finished in a 6-6 tie.

Geiges began his career as a college football official the following season. He officiated games for 27 years, advancing to the head of the profession. Geiges is credited with inventing the signals for holding, offsides, illegal shift and timeout. He was elected to the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame in 1984.

The Temple football program was administered by the Physical Education Department until well into the 20th century. For many years, the department was headed by Dr. Charles Prohaska, who was largely responsible for the expansion of the intercollegiate athletic program following World War I.

The Owls did not field a varsity football team between 1918 and 1921 due to the war. In the years that followed, Temple grew to have the second largest enrollment in the Philadelphia area. University President Charles F. Beury made a strong commitment at that time to greater success in intercollegiate athletics.

The Modern Era

What might be called the modern era of Temple football began in 1925 with the hiring of Henry J. Miller as head coach. "Heinie" Miller had been a star player at Penn, earning All-America honors in 1917. His much-hailed arrival promised great success against a much tougher level of competition.

Miller's Owls did well in 1925 and 1926, compiling a record of 10-5-2, the best two-year stretch in the school's short history. Things were about to get much better. Several outstanding players joined the roster in 1927, including future Temple Hall of Famers Tucker "Swede" Hanson, Grover Wearshing and Jack Bonner.

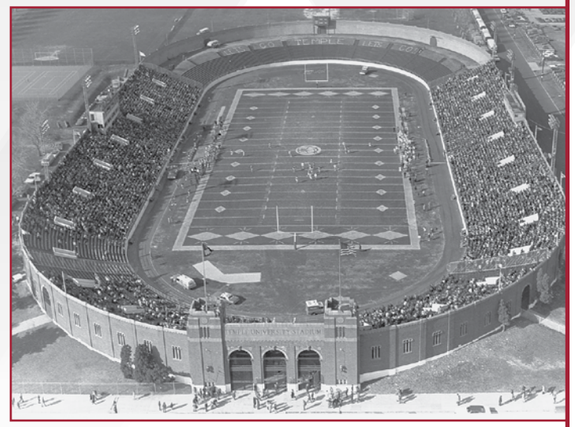
The Owls opened the season with a home game against Blue Ridge College, a small school located in New Windsor, Md. The mismatch was apparent from the opening kickoff. Temple held a 27-0 lead at the end of the first quarter, and then scored eight touchdowns in the second quarter to establish a 78-0 lead at the half. Unable to move the ball on offense, Blue Ridge actually began punting on first down. The coaches agreed at halftime to shorten the third quarter to eight minutes and later shortened the fourth quarter to six minutes. By the end of the game, three Temple players had switched jerseys to fill in for Blue Ridge. The Owls won by a final score of 110-0. Hanson scored five touchdowns and Wearshing scored three.

Several other one-sided results from the 1927 campaign, against Juniata (58-0), Gallaudet (62-0) and Washington College (75-0), indicated that the Owls were ready for a new level of competition. That competition came from Dartmouth, Brown and Bucknell.

Temple finished 7-1 that season, losing only to Dartmouth, while posting notable victories against Brown (7-0) and Bucknell (19-13). The Bucknell game marked the beginning of a long rivalry with the school located in Lewisburg, Pa. The Owls and the Bison played every year for the next 44 years, often in the last game of the season. Some years later, "The Old Shoe" was dedicated as a prize for the winner of the Temple-Bucknell contest. The bronze statue of a football shoe was awarded to the winning school, which held it until the following year's game.

The 1927 season finale against Bucknell was played at Franklin Field, marking Temple's first appearance on the home field of the Pennsylvania Quakers. The Owls would not need to borrow the facility the following season.

In December of 1927, President Beury announced that the University had received a gift of $100,000 from Philadelphia land developer Charles G. Erny for the construction of a football stadium at Vernon Park. The stadium was to seat between 20,000 and 25,000 and was to be completed in time for the 1928 football season.



Temple Stadium was first referred to as Beury Stadium, and for many years was known as Owl Stadium. The structure was designed by Philadelphia architect Clarence E. Wunder and was built by Erny's development firm. The total cost of construction was $350,000, with a seating capacity of 34,200, including mobile field seats.

The Owls made their debut in the new stadium on Sept. 29, 1928, against St. Thomas College of Scranton. Team captain Howard "Barney" Gugel made it a successful debut, scoring on a 66-yard fumble recovery and a 38-yard interception return for a 12-0 Temple victory witnessed by 10,000 fans.

The stadium's official dedication game came two weeks later against Eastern power Western Maryland. The Owls won that game, 7-0, thanks to a touchdown pass from Wearshing to Hanson. The contest drew 25,000 fans, including several dignitaries from the city of Philadelphia.

The 1928 campaign was another great success, as the Owls finished 7-1-2, losing only to Schuylkill College and posting ties against Bucknell and Villanova. Temple was dominant in the new stadium, winning its first six games by shutout. The only team to score against the Owls was Washington College, which managed a single touchdown in a 73-7 rout. Wearshing and Hanson scored three times apiece in that contest.

The battle against Villanova—a scoreless tie—also marked the beginning of a long rivalry (though the teams had played one another in 1908). The Owls and the Wildcats were both developing strong national reputations, and this was the big game on their schedules for the next 15 years.

Miller continued to field successful teams through the Depression Era, tutoring a new set of future Hall of Famers in Hank Reese, Tony Dougal and Leon Whittock. All three played key roles in 1931, another milestone year for the program.

The Owls finished with a record of 8-1-1 that season, setting a school record for wins that stood for 42 years. Along the way, Temple recorded a 12-0 victory over developing regional power Penn State. It was considered the school's most notable victory to date. The Owls also scored their first-ever victory over Villanova by the score of 13-7. Reese had an 80-yard interception return for a touchdown and Cornelius Bonner scored on a five-yard run to secure the victory. The Wildcats were coached by Harry Stuhldreher, who had gained fame as one of Notre Dame's "Four Horsemen."

Temple closed the 1931 campaign with its first extended road trip, traveling by train across the Midwest and the Plains to face Denver College and the University of Missouri. The Owls built their national reputation with an 18-0 victory over Denver and a 38-6 triumph over Missouri.

By this time, the University's athletic programs had grown out of their Physical Education Department beginnings. The Owls were administered by Earl Yeomans, Graduate Manager of Athletics, who had replaced James R. Clovis in that position in the mid-1920s. Yeomans would oversee the athletic programs at Temple until 1952. College football continued to grow by leaps and bounds despite the Depression.

The 1930s saw the establishment of several bowl games and the first Associated Press national poll to determine the best teams in the country. The Temple football program continued to grow as well, making a huge national splash with the hiring of college coaching legend Glenn S. Warner.

The Pop Warner Years

"Pop" Warner was one of football's great innovators. He pioneered the use of several offensive formations (the single wing, the double wing, the unbalanced line) while building powerful programs at Pittsburgh and Stanford. After carrying his legend from the East Coast to the West Coast, Warner was lured away from Stanford by Temple in December 1932.

"The Old Fox"—another one of Warner's many nicknames—had a successful 1933 debut at Owl Stadium against South Carolina, a dangerous opponent from the south. Edward Zukas had an 80-yard punt return for a touchdown in the first quarter to send the Owls on their way to a 26-6 triumph.

Another round of Hall of Famers took their place under Warner's guidance, most notably Pete Stevens, Dave Smukler, Stan Grayson and Chet Messervey. Stevens joined the team in 1933 and was named team captain in 1934. Smukler was a game-breaking running back who made an immediate impact on the team in 1934.

The Owls won their first two games that season against Virginia Tech (34-0) and Texas A&M (40-6). After a 6-6 tie against Indiana, Warner's squad won five straight against tough competition that included West Virginia, Holy Cross and Carnegie Tech. Temple finished the run with a 22-0 rout of Villanova, and then played Bucknell to a scoreless tie in the regular season finale.

The 1934 backfield quartet of Smukler, quarterback Glenn Frey and running backs Danny Testa and Wilfred H. Longsderff was one of the best in the nation. Their exploits (and the team's 7-0-2 record) drew the attention of the Mid-Winter Sports Association of New Orleans, which was busy planning the first Sugar Bowl. Warner's Owls were invited to play unbeaten Tulane in that contest on Jan. 1, 1935.

Smukler was a one-man show in the first half of the Sugar Bowl, tossing a touchdown pass to Danny Testa and running the ball in for another score. He also converted both extra points to give the Owls a 14-0 lead. Tulane responded to the second touchdown with a huge play from its star, Claude "Monk" Simons, who took a lateral on the ensuing kickoff and raced 85 yards for a touchdown. The Green Wave knotted the score at 14-14 in the third quarter and it seemed for a while that the game would end in a tie. With less than three minutes remaining, though, Tulane scored on a pass that had been deflected by a Temple defender. The Owls blocked the extra point and mounted one last offensive drive, but they could not put the ball in the end zone. They lost, 20-14.

Warner guided the Temple program for the next four years against the nation's toughest competition. The Owls beat tough southern schools Texas A&M and Vanderbilt in 1935 and began a series of games against Michigan State. The 1938 squad played three teams that finished the season in the nation's Top 10 (Pittsburgh, Holy Cross and eventual national champion, Texas Christian).

Temple was a heavy underdog in what would turn out to be Warner's finale, a contest at Florida on Dec. 3, 1938. Florida was coached by Josh Cody, who was just a couple years away from beginning a 15-year career at Temple. Playing in 80-degree heat, the Owls upset the Gators, 20-12, thanks in large part to a 102-yard kickoff return by Jimmy Powers. After missing the entire 1939 season due to injury, Powers returned the opening kickoff against Michigan State 105 yards for a touchdown in 1940. The returns remain the two longest plays in Temple football history.

The Post-Warner Years

Warner's top assistant, Fred H. Swan, took over as head coach in 1939. His tenure may have been doomed from the start. The Owls lost his debut game against Georgetown, 3-2, on a field goal with 25 seconds to go. The field goal had been preceded by a controversial pass interference penalty against the Owls.

The following season, Temple hired Ray Morrison as head coach. Morrison had gained fame as an All-American player at Vanderbilt and head coach at Southern Methodist University. One of Morrison's top assistants was Josh Cody. The new coach promised a wide-open offensive attack that he had developed in the south.

The high-scoring offense was on display in the first game of the 1940 season, a 64-7 victory over Muhlenberg. The Owls jumped to a 45-0 halftime lead in the contest and never looked back. Running back "Handy" Andy Tomasic had a 73-yard touchdown run. Tomasic, nicknamed "The Hokendauqua Hurricane" for his hometown near Allentown, Pa., was one of several Temple Hall of Famers that maintained the program's level of national success in the 1940s.

Tackles Chuck Drulis and Bucko Kilroy were All-East selections and Kilroy was Temple's first Honorable Mention All-American. Running back Phil Slosburg was an All-East pick and was chosen to play in the Blue-Gray All-Star Game. Other stars for the Cherry and White included Mike Jarmoluk, Joe Nejman and John Rogers.

The Owls fielded particularly strong teams in 1941 and 1945. The team got off to a 6-1 start in 1941, beating rivals Penn State, Bucknell and Villanova. That marks the only time in school history that all three foes were beaten in the same season. Hopes for a bowl bid were dashed though, with a 46-0 loss at Michigan State in the next-to-last game of the season. The following week, the Owls were heavy underdogs on a trip to Eastern power Holy Cross. They responded with a 31-13 upset victory to finish the season at 7-2.

The 1945 campaign held similar promise as Temple defeated Eastern powers Syracuse (7-6) and Pittsburgh (6-0) on the way to a 6-0 start. The Owls were among the favorites to receive an Orange Bowl bid until suffering a 27-0 loss at Penn State. History repeated itself with a visit to heavily favored Holy Cross the following week. Holy Cross was undefeated at the time and had become the Orange Bowl favorite. Temple pulled off one of the greatest upsets in school history, winning 14-6 thanks to touchdown runs by quarterback Jack Burns and running back Gene Zawolski. Holy Cross received the Orange Bowl bid anyway, though the Owls received strong consideration for the Cotton Bowl—partially thanks to Morrison's ties with SMU. Temple's 7-1 squad of 1945 ranks as one of its best ever.

Morrison coached the Owls through 1948, and was followed by Albert P. Kawal. The new coach's first team featured a hard-nosed running back who nearly became the first 1,000-yard rusher in school history. Temple Hall of Famer, Bill Bernardo, gained 994 yards on the ground in 1949, a school record that stood until 1973. The roster also included Hall of Famer Gavin White, who would later enjoy a successful coaching career and would serve as Temple's director of athletics in the 1980s.

Cody replaced Yeomans as Temple's athletic director in 1952, as the University was entering the first few years of an "administrative de-emphasis" of intercollegiate athletics. By the mid-1950s, the Owls were no longer playing a national schedule, replacing the likes of Michigan State and West Virginia with Lafayette and Gettysburg. Bucknell remained a yearly foe, though Villanova had been dropped from the schedule in 1944.

Kawal coached the Owls through 1954, and then Cody took over for the 1955 campaign. The Owls went 0-8 that season, their first winless mark since 1923, and Cody hired 1934 team captain Pete Stevens to coach the team in 1956. Stevens remains the only former Temple player to have coached the team in the modern era.

Temple went 3-5 in 1956 and opened the 1957 season with two losses. The Owls then beat Lafayette, 13-12, at Temple Stadium. They would not win another game for nearly three years. The Owls lost their final four games of the 1957 campaign and finished 0-8 in 1958 and 0-9 in 1959. The 21-game losing streak is the longest in school history.

Ernie Casale took over as Temple's athletic director in 1959. Years later, he recalled a 12-8 loss that season against Drexel that attracted just 200 fans on a rainy Halloween night in Philadelphia. The Owls had just 24 players in uniform for their 1959 season finale at Gettysburg.

The following year brought a new head coach, George Makris, to North Broad Street. Makris had established a fine coaching reputation at Bolling Air Force Base in Washington, D.C. The 21-game losing streak came to an end in the 1960 season opener against Kings Point.

The Owls trailed 13-0 in the first half of the contest, but then started their comeback, eventually taking an 18-13 lead on Charlie Lotson's 86-yard interception return for a touchdown. Lotson later recovered a fumble that set up the game-clinching touchdown. Running back Ernie Wayland scored two touchdowns as the Cherry and White posted a 26-13 victory. Many of the 10,000 fans in attendance stormed the field and tore down the goalposts in celebration.

Middle Atlantic Conference

Temple continued to re-establish itself in the 1960s, playing in the University Division of the Middle Atlantic States Conference. The other losing streak that had to be brought to an end was a long skid against conference rival Bucknell. While the Owls dominated the series from 1938 to 1949, compiling a record of 9-1-2 during that stretch, they had not beaten the Bison since 1953. The losing streak had reached eight by 1962.

The game was up for grabs that year. Bucknell took a 7-0 lead, but the Owls responded with a one-yard touchdown run by running back Bill Cosby (who would eventually gain greater fame). The Owls then jumped ahead, 14-7, on a 38-yard interception return for a touchdown by Joe Morelli. Late in the contest, Bucknell went ahead again, 15-14, scoring a TD and converting a two-point play. The Owls came back with a drive to the Bucknell one-yard line, but fumbled the ball away. Temple got one last chance on offense and advanced the ball deep into Bucknell territory. With 15 seconds left, the Owls lined up for a game-winning field goal attempt. It missed, and the Bison kept possession of "The Old Shoe."

Things got significantly better for the Cherry and White though, as the team posted a 5-3-1 mark in 1963, the school's first winning record since 1951. The Owls finished second in the league standings in 1964 and challenged for the Middle Atlantic title in 1965 and 1966. The 1966 campaign also brought "The Old Shoe" back to North Broad Street.

That season's battle with Bucknell was a blowout from the beginning. Temple held a 20-0 lead at the end of the first quarter, and it was 41-7 by halftime. Late in the first half, sophomore quarterback John Waller was substituted in place of starter Tom DeFelice. Waller connected with wide receiver Jim Callahan for a couple of touchdowns, and then a couple more. Entering the fourth quarter, the Owls held a 75-14 lead and Waller had thrown five touchdowns, four of them to Callahan. One more Waller-to-Callahan TD pass set the school's single-game record for touchdown passes and receptions. The Owls won, 82-28, posting the second-highest point total in school history.

"The Old Shoe" stayed in Philadelphia the next season as the Owls beat Bucknell and every other Middle Atlantic Conference foe to win the 1967 league title. Another school record was broken against the Bison, this time as running back Mike Busch carried the ball a record 38 times for a record 176 yards in a 13-8 victory that clinched a tie for the league title. DeFelice guided the squad to a 45-27 victory over Gettysburg the following week to clinch the crown outright. Temple received strong consideration for the Tangerine Bowl that year but was not selected.

Records continued to fall in 1968, especially passing records, as Waller-to-Callahan became one of the most dangerous pass-and-catch duos in the country. Waller set school marks with 35 completions, 62 attempts and 440 yards passing in a 50-40 loss to Buffalo. He finished the year as the first 2,000-yard passer in Temple history and set just about every other single-season and career passing record for the Owls. Callahan's total of 14 TD receptions in 1968 went unmatched until 2008 [by Bruce Francis]. Amazingly, Callahan's first 10 receptions were all for TDs.

The Owls left the Middle Atlantic Conference after the 1969 season so they could return to playing a full Division I-A schedule. Makris was replaced by Wayne Hardin, a well-known coach who had six successful seasons at Navy. Hardin's Midshipmen had beaten Army in five of their six meetings. His tenure on North Broad Street did not have such an auspicious beginning.

The Hardin Years

The opponent was Akron in the 1970 season opener. The Zips scored on their first three possessions and never looked back in a 21-0 victory over the Owls. Hardin's team bounced back the following week and beat Bucknell, 10-3, in the last meeting between the two schools. Temple now had possession of "The Old Shoe" trophy for good. The winning ways continued through the 1970 campaign, though the Owls lost their season finale against Villanova, 31-26. It was the first meeting between the two teams since 1943, and it was closely contested from start to finish. Temple-Villanova was the closing game of the regular season every year from 1970 to 1980.

The Owls compiled a record of 18-9-1 during Hardin's first three years as head coach and rolled on from there. Temple beat Villanova, 12-10, in the 1972 season finale. Temple Hall of Fame kicker Nick Mike-Mayer booted two field goals and the game-clinching touchdown was set up on a fumble recovery by Bob Bernardo, the son of Temple Hall of Famer Bill Bernardo. Wide receiver Clint Graves set a school record in 1972 with 63 receptions, and he set the single-game mark with 15 catches against Rhode Island.

Hardin's first few teams featured several other stars, including quarterback Doug Shobert, an Honorable Mention All-American in 1971; tight end Randy Grossman, a Third Team All-American in 1972; and offensive guard Bill Singletary, a First Team All-American in 1972. Singletary is the only football player in Temple history to have his number (64) retired.

The Owls re-established themselves as one of the dominant programs in the East in 1973, finishing the season at 9-1 to set a school record for wins. The team won its final eight games of the season, including a 34-0 shutout of Villanova in which the defense forced 10 turnovers. Hardin's veer offense was almost impossible to stop, as the team surpassed the 30-point mark in eight of 10 games. The backfield tandem of Tom Sloan and Henry Hynoski keyed a powerful rushing attack, and the passing game was left in the capable hands of Steve Joachim. Sloan became the first 1,000-yard rusher in school history, finishing the year with 1,036 yards. Hynoski surpassed the 1,000-yard mark in 1974.

The Temple offense was just as tough to stop that season, and the defense was downright stingy. The Owls won their first six games of 1974, running their win streak to 14 games. It was the longest streak in the nation and it still stands as the longest in school history. In a nine-game stretch that spanned two seasons, Temple outscored its opponents, 361-58. The 14th victim of Hardin's Owls was Delaware, which battled hard before losing a 21-17 contest at Veterans Stadium. That marked Temple's first game at the South Philadelphia venue. The win streak was snapped the following week by Cincinnati, 22-20. The Owls finished the season with a record of 8-2, winning their finale against Villanova, 17-7, in another game played at The Vet.

The awards came piling in after the season. Joachim received numerous All-American honors, running back Henry Hynoski and offensive guard Pat Staub were All-East choices, and defensive tackle Joe Klecko was an Honorable Mention All-American. The accolades culminated in Joachim being selected the Maxwell Award winner as National Player of the Year.

The 1975 season opener provided another milestone for the Owls, as the team faced Penn State for the first time since 1952. Running back Bob Harris shocked the Nittany Lions by breaking through the middle for a 76-yard touchdown on the first play from scrimmage. The up-and-back contest tilted toward the Owls in the fourth quarter when Anthony Anderson ran for a touchdown that gave Temple a 23-18 lead. But Penn State would score the last touchdown after a long punt return and win the game, 26-25.

The teams played another one-point game the following year at Veterans Stadium. Beginning in 1976, The Vet became the new home of the Temple football team. Early in the season, the stadium hosted the first meeting between Temple and Grambling, which was coached by the legendary Eddie Robinson. The Owls won the contest, 31-30. That score was reversed when Penn State returned to town in October. Temple scored on the last play of the game to make the score 31-30, and Hardin opted for a two-point conversion attempt to beat the Nittany Lions. The conversion attempt failed.

Klecko ranked as the top tackler in school history following the 1976 season. Another group of stars then arrived on campus that would eventually produce the most successful season in school history. Temple Hall of Famers Anthony Anderson and Steve Watson built that success in 1977 and 1978. The Owls wrapped up both years with a trip to Japan to play in the Mirage Bowl. Tokyo's Korakeun Stadium hosted Temple-Grambling in 1977 and Temple-Boston College in 1978. Running back Zachary Dixon set a single-season school rushing record in the BC game. He finished the year with 1,153 yards on the ground, and the Owls finished with a record of 7-3-1.

The 1979 Season

The 1979 campaign opened with three straight victories before Hardin's squad lost to Pittsburgh, 10-9. The Owls bounced back to rout Rutgers and Syracuse on the way to five straight wins. The 8-1 start had the Owls thinking about a postseason bowl bid in November. A loss to Penn State was followed by a 42-10 rout of Villanova, giving the team a record of 9-2 and securing a berth in the Garden State Bowl. Temple's offense was led by quarterback Brian Broomell, and his top receiving target was Gerald "Sweet Feet" Lucear, who set several records that year. The defense featured record-setting linebacker Steve Conjar, who had 163 tackles that season and surpassed that mark with 174 stops in 1980.

The Garden State Bowl opponent was California and the matchup painted Temple as the defender of Eastern football. The Owls jumped on the Golden Bears for three touchdowns in the first quarter, with running back Kevin Duckett scoring a pair of touchdowns. California chipped away at the 21-0 lead in the second quarter, scoring a pair of touchdowns to make it 21-14 at the half. A field goal early in the fourth quarter cut the lead to 21-17. Broomell then led the Owls on a 14-play, 78-yard drive that culminated with a five-yard TD pass to Lucear. Significant credit for Temple's offensive success went to running back Mark Bright, who totaled 112 yards rushing on 19 carries. The Owls won the game, 28-17, and Bright was voted the game's Most Valuable Player. Temple's 10-2 finish to the 1979 season marks the highest single-season win total in school history.

Hardin coached the Owls through the 1982 season, compiling 80 wins in his 13 seasons on North Broad Street. He had the most wins and the longest tenure of any Temple football coach. Bruce Arians took over as head coach in 1983. Arians had been tutored by Alabama coaching legend Paul "Bear" Bryant.

The 1980s and Bruce Arians

The Owls produced some notable wins and notable players in the 1980s. They beat Pittsburgh three times in a four-year span, including one year (1987) in which the Panthers were invited to a bowl game. They also scored victories against bowl-bound squads West Virginia (1984) and Virginia Tech (1986).

Arians also coached Paul Palmer, the most prolific running back in school history. Palmer broke onto the national scene with a 206-yard rushing effort against Penn State in his junior year and continued to break records throughout the season. He holds virtually every Temple rushing record, including those for career rushing yards (4,895), 100-yard rushing games (21) and rushing touchdowns (39).

Palmer couldn't have set all those records without a solid group of teammates. Temple players who earned All-American mention during the 1980s included fellow running back Todd McNair, wide receiver Willie Marshall, tight end Mike Hinnant, defensive back Todd Bowles, linebacker Loranzo Square and offensive linemen Kevin Jones and John Rienstra, who garnered First Team All-America honors in 1985.

The Big East

Jerry Berndt followed Arians as head coach, taking over in 1989. The Owls struggled to a 1-10 finish that season, but then recorded the biggest turnaround in college football and went 7-4 in 1990. Berndt's squad received consideration for the Independence Bowl while putting together the school's best record since the Garden State Bowl season. The following year, Temple helped found the Big East Football Conference, putting the Owls in league competition for the second time in school history.

Ron Dickerson followed Berndt as head coach in 1993. At the time he was hired, Dickerson was the only African-American head football coach of a Division I-A school. Dickerson coached two of the leading tacklers-linebackers Lance Johnstone and Alshermond Singleton, along with the most prolific passer in school history. Henry Burris set more than a dozen records between 1993 and 1996, including a single-game-best 445 yards passing against Pittsburgh in 1996, and he holds nearly every single-season and career passing mark.

On December 23, 1997, Temple University named Bobby Wallace its 23rd head football coach. The Mississippi native arrived on North Broad Street as the winningest coach in NCAA Division II playoff history after capturing three consecutive national titles at the University of North Alabama from 1993-95. In his first season, Wallace assembled a staff collectively holding 18 national championship rings and persevered through an injury-plagued season with 25 first-year players in the lineup en route to a 2-9 finish.

One of those victories occurred on October 17, 1998, and is arguably one of the greatest upsets in college football history. Before a homecoming crowd the 0-6 Owls traveled to No. 10/14 Virginia Tech to take on the Hokies' top ranked defense. Substituting for 12 defensive players who exited the game due to injury and with 20 first-year players on the field, Temple overcame a 17-0 deficit en route to a 28-24 win. The victory marked the Owls' first-ever Big East road win and first triumph over a ranked opponent in 11 years. Two games later the Owls proved the win was not an aberration. Trailing 20-0 at Pittsburgh, Temple ground out a 34-33 victory to ensure the program's largest comeback win in the modern era.

With a new, pass-oriented offense, the 1999 team posted a 2-9 record and finished tied for sixth in the Big East. The Owls struggled early with a schedule that allowed only two home dates in the first seven games and ranked 13th in difficulty. A come-from-behind, 17-14, homecoming win against then undefeated Boston College and a 56-28 offensive explosion over Rutgers were the highlights. Devin Scott completed 36 of 45 passes versus Rutgers to set both school and Big East records for completions in a game. Defensively, true freshman Dan Klecko earned All-America honors from various publications while linebackers Taylor Suman and LeVar Talley ranked second and fifth, respectively, in the conference in tackles.

The 2000 season began with much anticipation. With its new state-of-the-art practice facility under construction, Temple began the campaign with a 3-1 mark, its best start in 10 years. For the first time in a long time, the Owls had something to play for in November. Unfortunately, Temple lost many tight contests and could muster only one conference victory. Although the goal of a bowl game was not reached, the Owls finished with a 4-7 mark, the program's best since 1990. Sophomore running back Tanardo Sharps became the first Owl since 1987 to rush for over 1,000 yards, accumulating 1,038.

In 2001, Temple battled through a tough schedule en route to its second straight 4-7 record and a 2-5 Big East mark to finish in sixth place. All seven of the Owls' losses were to teams that ended their respective seasons bowl eligible, with a combined .750 (63-21) winning percentage. The strength of the 2001 squad was on defense, where Temple limited opponents to 312.64 yards per game to finish 19th nationally in total defense. The Owls concluded the season with two consecutive wins, including a 17-14 win in Morgantown, W.V., to break a 10-game drought against the Mountaineers. Juniors Dan Klecko and Sean Dillard earned first and second team All-Big East honors, respectively. Klecko was a unanimous choice, becoming Temple's first unanimous All-Big East honoree since the school joined the league as a charter member in 1991.

The 2002 Temple football team was composed entirely of players recruited during Wallace's tenure at Temple University. The Owls concluded the campaign with a 4-8 record, including a 2-5 mark in Big East play to finish tied for sixth place. Seven of Temple's eight losses were against opponents that concluded their respective seasons by playing in bowl games.

Once again, the defense paved the way, leading the Big East and placing 15th nationally in run defense, allowing just 108.3 yards on the ground per game. Temple also made its mark in total defense, placing 18th among all Division I programs by allowing just 315.67 yards per contest. Defensive tackle Dan Klecko was a major cog in TU's defensive machine and capped his senior campaign by being named the Big East Conference Defensive Player of the Year and an AP Second Team All-American.

Tanardo Sharps gained 1,267 yards on the ground to conclude his career ranked second to Paul Palmer in virtually every Temple rushing category while Sean Dillard exited Owl Country as the team's all-time reception leader.

Despite one victory, there were many positives to the 2003 campaign under Wallace. First and foremost was the University's agreement with the Philadelphia Eagles for Temple to play its home games at Lincoln Financial Field. It marked the first time since 1991 the Owls played all their home games at the same site. Temple's first five games at the venue drew an average 24,147 fans, a 21 percent increase from the prior season's average.

After battling through a school-record three overtime defeats in the early season, the Owls concluded the year with three, hard-fought losses to nationally-ranked opponents. Highlighting the final trio of games was the performance of sophomore quarterback Walter Washington, who averaged 315 yards of total offense and was responsible for eight touchdowns.

Along the way, Washington tied the school record for rushing scores with four at West Virginia and also set the Big East mark for total plays with 69 against the Mountaineers. He also became the first Temple signal caller to rush for over 100 yards in a game, eclipsing the mark versus Virginia Tech and at WVU.

Among the postseason honors to come to North Broad Street was a Second Team All-America citation for sophomore linebacker Rian Wallace from CollegeFootballNews.com. The Pottstown, Pa., native had the sixth-best single-season tackle output in Temple history, posting 148 tackles (97 solo) while also registering 19.5 TFLs.

Wallace was also a Second Team All-Big East honoree and was joined by senior wide receiver Zamir Cobb, who was a first team selection. Cobb, the Owls' all-time reception leader with 165 career catches, set the school's single-season reception mark with 74 catches for 866 yards and five TDs in 2003.

Temple concluded its 2004 campaign with a 2-9 mark, including a 1-5 league record in its final season as a member of the Big East Conference. Final NCAA rankings rated the Owls' schedule the 16th toughest in major football (60-43, .583). Six of 11 opponents were nationally-ranked at some point during the season and 10 were at least in the "receiving votes" category. Eight opponents concluded their 2004 campaigns by playing in bowl games.

Despite a multitude of adversity, Temple gave its fans reason to cheer. Many of those cheers were in response to performances turned-in by QB Walter Washington. The junior was the top scorer among Division I-A QBs with an 8.36 scoring average and led the nation in rushing TDs by a signal-caller during the regular season with 15, setting the Big East record for a QB and tying the Temple mark for total scores in a season.

Washington led the Big East with a 281.5 total yards-per-game average (3,096 total), to become Temple's first 3,000-yard player. He set a Big East and Temple record for yards rushing by a QB in a season with 889 net yards (1,104 total) and was responsible for the Owls' final 16 TDs, while accounting for 25 of 29 (86%) overall. Washington led the Big East and ranked 11th nationally in total offense (281.5), 22nd in point responsibility (13.82) and 21st in scoring. He set the Big East and Temple record for total plays with 554.

Washington, the Big East 2004 Player of the Year by CollegeFootballNews.com, was named to the All-Big East Second Team in a vote by the league's head coaches. He was joined on the all-conference squad by fellow juniors Rian "Goo" Wallace and Mike Mendenhall, who earned first and second team honors, respectively. After the season, Washington and Wallace both decided to forgo their senior seasons and enter the 2005 NFL Draft.

A Difficult Independence

Temple faced the 11th most difficult schedule in Division I-A in 2005, according to the NCAA statistical rankings, and was winless for the first time since 1959 (0-9) with a 0-11 record. It marked the final season at the helm for head coach Bobby Wallace, who concluded his eight-year Temple tenure with a 19-71 overall mark. The Owls played as a I-A independent.

Prior to the start of the season, the Owls' schedule was recognized for its degree of difficulty on a national scale in the pages of Sports Illustrated. A four-page spread penned by Franz Lidz deemed the docket as "arguably the most brutal in the country." Unfortunately for the Cherry & White faithful, the proclamation held true. The combined record of Temple's 11 opponents was 83-46 and seven played in postseason bowls, with six earning victories. Ten opponents concluded their regular season bowl eligible. The only Temple foe to post a losing record was ACC member Maryland at 5-6.

The Golden Years

Temple named Al Golden the 24th head coach in the history of the program on December 6, 2005. A Colts Neck, N.J., native and Penn State gridiron alumnus, Golden arrived on North Broad Street after having spent the previous five seasons as defensive coordinator at Virginia. At age 37, he entered his first season on the Cherry & White sideline as the fourth-youngest head coach in Division I-A football.

The 2006 season was difficult but beneficial. The team played the most true freshmen in the nation, with 22 taking the field. In total, 39 players saw their first major college football action, including 27 freshmen overall. These rookies did so against an ambitious schedule that ranked as the third toughest in the nation, with eight foes earning bowl invitations.

The first win of the Golden Era happened on Saturday, October 28 against Bowling Green at Lincoln Financial Field. The 28-14 victory earned Temple runner-up for Tostitos Fiesta Bowl National Team of the Week honors behind Oregon State. The Owls snapped a 20-game game losing streak with a gutsy performance highlighted by a multitude of big plays.

The Mid-American Conference

In his second season in 2007, Golden once again played the nation's most freshmen while guiding the Owls to four wins on the season, all in conference play, during their inaugural season of Mid-American Conference play. Temple won four games, the most wins since the 2002 season and equal to the wins from the prior four seasons combined. The four league wins were the most for Temple in 40 years. The Owls finished the 2007 campaign at 4-8 overall and 4-4 in MAC play.

Led by All-MAC honorees Andre Neblett and Dominique Harris, the Temple defense ranked atop the MAC in five statistical categories, including total defense, and finished ranked No. 1 nationally in red zone defense.

In 2008, Golden led the Owls to their most wins in nearly two decades, finishing at 5-7 overall and 4-4 in the MAC to tie for second in the East Division. Temple out-scored its opponents for the season for the first time since 1990 and was so close to eight wins, falling in three games on the very last play.

The Owls led the nation in kickoff returns as a team, and senior All-MAC KOR Travis Shelton was the national leader individually.

Under the direction of fourth-year head coach Al Golden, Temple recorded one of the best seasons in school history in 2009. The Owls finished 9-4 overall while tying for first place in the Mid-American Conference East Division at 7-1. TU advanced to the 2009 EagleBank Bowl against UCLA.

TU made school history with nine consecutive wins in a single season. Recording its first winning season since 1990 and becoming bowl eligible for the first time since 1990, Temple made its third bowl appearance in school history and first in 30 years.

The 2009 squad, featuring Golden's first recruiting class as seniors, set the school record for rushing touchdowns in a season with 29, surpassing 26 rushing TDs by the 1973 and 1979 teams. In all, Temple re-wrote 18 school season records and 11 game records in 2009.

Rookie RB Bernard Pierce earned several All-America honors during his freshman campaign, including CollegeFootballNews.com Honorable Mention All-American and College FootballNews.com Freshman All-American.

The Owls swept the Mid-American Conference honors as well. Pierce was named the Freshman of the Year, sophomore DE Adrian Robinson was named the Defensive Player of the Year, and head coach Al Golden was named the Coach of the Year. A school record 15 Temple football players were named All-MAC, including a school record eight first-team honorees.

In his fifth and final season with the Owls, Al Golden guided Temple to an 8-4 overall record and 5-3 in the MAC in 2010. Recording its first back-to-back winning seasons since 1978-79, Temple became bowl eligible for the second consecutive year for the first time in program history. However, despite a winning record, the Owls did not receive an at-large bowl invitation.

The Owls' 10-game home win streak at Lincoln Financial Field was the longest since the stadium opened in 2003 and tied the longest home win streak in school history of 10 games from the 1972-74 seasons at Temple and Veterans Stadiums.

For the second consecutive year, a school record eight Temple Owls earned first-team All-Mid-American Conference honors.

Following the season, Golden was named the head coach at the University of Miami.

The Addazio Era

On December 23, 2010, Steve Addazio was named Temple University's 25th head football coach.

In his first season in 2011, Addazio guided the Owls to an 9-4 overall record and a second-place finish in the Mid-American Conference East Division en route to their second bowl appearance in three years. Temple defeated Wyoming, 37-15, in the Gildan New Mexico Bowl.

The all-time winningest first-year coach in school history, Addazio mentored 10 All-MAC selections, including first-team honorees OL Pat Boyle, RB Bernard Pierce, DE Adrian Robinson, and TE Evan Rodriguez. The Owls' defense dominated the MAC, leading all teams in five categories while ranking No. 3 nationally in scoring defense.

Addazio's offense set the school records for rushing yards and rushing touchdowns in a season as well behind the explosive efforts of All-MAC honorees Pierce and Matt Brown. Pierce became Temple's all-time leader in rushing touchdowns (53), total touchdowns (54), and points scored (324).

Off the field, the Temple football players were recognized as the 2011 Most Valuable Players by the Philadelphia Affiliate of Susan G. Komen for the Cure for their community service efforts.

A Return to the Big East

On March 7, 2012, the Big East Conference announced that Temple would begin play in the league beginning with the 2012 football season.

In his second season in 2012, Addazio led Temple to a 4-7 overall record and 2-5 (tie for 6th) record in Big East play. The Owls returned to the Big East Conference after a seven -year absence and won back-to-back league games for a 2-0 start in Big East play, both for the first time in school history. True freshman LB Tyler Matakevich was named to the 2012 Football Writers Association of America Freshman All-America Team.

Six Temple Owls earned 2012 All-Big East honors, including senior Matt Brown who was named the Special Teams Player of the Year, and true freshman LB Tyler Matakevich who took home Rookie of the Year honors. Earning first team All-Conference honors were senior RB Montel Harris, Brown at return specialist, and senior Brandon McManus at punter. Second-team accolades went to senior OL Martin Wallace, McManus at placekicker, senior DL John Youboty, and Matakevich. A total of 31 Temple Owls were named to the 2012 Big East All-Academic Team.

The Owls made history in their final non-conference game. Senior RB Montel Harris had a career day, rushing for 351 yards and seven touchdowns — both Big East and school records — to lead the Owls to a 63-32 win at Army. The 63 points scored tied the Temple NCAA Division I-A record set back in 1973 in a win over Holy Cross. The Owls also established a new team record for rushing yards with 534, breaking the old mark set in 1977 against Drake (477 yards), just two yards shy of the Big East mark. The nine rushing touchdowns were a new Big East and school record.

Harris was not the only record-breaking Owl as senior PK Brandon McManus surpassed Bernard Pierce as the Owls' all-time scoring leader.

Following the season, Addazio was named the head coach at Boston College.

HISTORY

New Coach, New Conference, New Expectations

On December 17, 2012, Matt Rhule was named Temple University's 26th head football coach. No stranger to Temple after six seasons as an assistant under Golden and Addazio, Rhule returned to take the reins after eight months in the NFL coaching ranks.

In March 2013, the Big East formally announced a separation with its basketball schools. On September 6, 2013, when Temple hosted the University of Houston, the football schools began play under a new name, the American Athletic Conference.

The Rhule Era got off to a slow start getting out of the gates with a 0-6 record and finishing 2013 at 2-10. However, true freshman Phillip Walker took over at quarterback on October 11 at Cincinnati which started a streak of 47 straight starts for the Elizabeth, N.J. native who would go on to re-write the Temple record books.

Temple opened the 2014 season with a road win at Vanderbilt for its first win against an SEC opponent since 1938. Along the way Temple posted its largest margin of victory in nearly half a century beating Delaware State 59-0, but the season was highlighted by a 20-10 win against #21 ECU, the first Temple win over a ranked team in 16 seasons. A 6-6 overall record in 2014 left the Owls bowl eligible but out of the postseason.

The 2015 season was a record-setting year for Temple with many memorable moments along the way. Beginning with a 27-10 win over Penn State on opening day in front of a sellout crowd of 69,176 at Lincoln Financial Field. Three straight road victories (for the first time in 45 years) lifted the Owls to a 7-0 start and earned Temple a spot in the Top 25. That set the stage for one of the best moments in school history, an ABC nationally televised, primetime game against #9 Notre Dame that brought along ESPN's College Gameday to Philadelphia's Independence Mall. A nail-biting 24-20 loss to the Irish could not diminish that landmark moment. The Owls finished the regular season at 10-2, tying the 1979 team for the most wins in a season, and a berth in the American Athletic Conference's first-ever Championship Game. Temple fell at Houston, 24-13, and also lost to Toledo in the Marmot Boca Raton Bowl. While many Owls earned all-conference recognition, senior linebacker Tyler Matakevich, who finished with a school record 493 tackles including four seasons with 100+ stops, was named the nation's best defensive player earning both the Chuck Bednarik Award and Bronko Nagurski Trophy. Matakevich, defensive lineman Matt Ioannidis, and defensive back Tavon Young all were drafted into the NFL.

While 2016 ended with a similar 10-4 record, the season was much different from the 2015 version. Following a 3-3 start, the Owls turned a 7-0 record down the stretch, including back-to-back road game shutouts for the first time since 1925, into another Top 25 ranking and a spot in The American Championship Game. This time the results were different as Temple beat Navy in Annapolis, 34-10, for its first conference title since 1967 and its first-ever championship game victory. Quarterback Phillip Walker capped his record-setting career at Temple with the game's Most Outstanding Player Award. He became the first Temple quarterback to lead the Owls to multiple bowl games as Temple played in back-to-back bowl games for the first time ever. During the season, Haason Reddick was among the nation's best defenders with 10.5 sacks and 22.5 tackles for loss. While he was under the radar most of the season, Reddick was rewarded by becoming the #13 overall selection in the NFL Draft going to the Arizona Cardinals. He became just the fourth Temple player selected in the NFL's first round. Offensive lineman Dion Dawkins (Buffalo) and defensive back Nate Hairston (Indianapolis) joined Reddick among the drafted but seven other 2016 seniors signed free agent contracts. The team's success didn't come without consequences as Matt Rhule took a job at Baylor. Temple hired former Florida defensive coordinator Geoff Collins to continue the rise of the Top 25, championship program.

Mayhem is Coming

Geoff Collins came to Philadelphia with the moniker "Minister of Mayhem" and showed Temple fans exactly why he earned that nickname. Never bashful, the Georgia native, who sharpened his coaching skills with nearly a decade as a defensive coordinator in the SEC, turned up the volume - literally and figuratively - of Temple's football program. With an added emphasis on social media graphics and videos, Temple's recruiting reach extended to new areas and resulted in the school's highest ranked and most diverse recruiting classes ever. Collins' first season on the sidelines resulted in a 7-6 record insuring that the 2017 senior class would become the winningest class in school history with a four-year total of 33 wins. After developing its offensive identity, the Owls won four of their final five games including a 28-3 manhandling of FIU in the Bad Boy Mowers Gasparilla Bowl.

Collins' 2018 squad was led by the winningest senior class in school history finishing their careers with 35 wins and four straight bowl appearances - the first Temple class to do that. That class produced three NFL Draft picks - CB Rock Ya-Sin, RB Ryquell Armstead and DT Michael Dogbe - and a handful of undrafted free agents. Armstead moved among the all-time leaders in rushing while fellow senior, Ventell Bryant rewrote the school's record books with 173 receptions for 2,444 yards. He also caught at least one pass in all 48 games he played as an Owl.

By season's end, however, Collins left for his hometown team, Georgia Tech, and Ed Foley was once again the interim head coach of a bowl team. When Foley led the Owls in the Independence Bowl, he became the first to coach multiple Temple teams in a bowl game.

Director of Athletics Dr. Pat Kraft was quick to replace Collins with Miami's defensive coordinator Manny Diaz. However 17 days later when the Miami head coaching job became vacant, Diaz returned to Miami. Kraft then led another head coaching search, this time landing NIU's Rod Carey.

Tulane (10-1)	0	7	7	6	20

NEW ORLEANS, La. — The Mid-Winter Sports Association of New Orleans was formed in 1934 to formulate plans for an annual New Year's Day football classic. On Dec. 2, 1934, the Association's executive board selected Tulane (9-1), unbeaten in the South, and unbeaten Temple (7-0-2), coached by Glenn "Pop" Warner, to play in the first game.

The game was a financial and artistic success; however, the final 20–14 result was a heartbreaker for Temple fans. The Owls built up a 14-point lead only to see Tulane score touchdowns in the second, third, and fourth quarters to win the game.

The inaugural Sugar Bowl turned into a contest between two All-Americans—Temple's Dave Smukler (who played all 60 minutes) and Tulane's Claude "Monk" Simons. After the Owls' Danny Testa scored the first touchdown in Sugar Bowl history with a seven-yard TD reception from Smukler. Smukler rushed for second score. With Smukler converting both extra points, the Owls were up 14–0.

On the next kickoff, Johnny McDaniel received the ball and lateraled to Simons, who scampered 85 yards for a touchdown. The Owls held a 14-7 edge at halftime.

Dick Hardy scored the tying touchdown in the third quarter on an 11-yard pass from Bucky Bryan.

With less than three minutes left, Hardy notched the game-winning score on a 43-yard reception in the end zone. Temple blocked the extra point attempt, but was unable to score on its final drive. The hometown team would go on to win the first Sugar Bowl.

Tulane Stadium served as home for the Sugar Bowl until 1975 when it moved to its present site— the Louisiana Superdome.

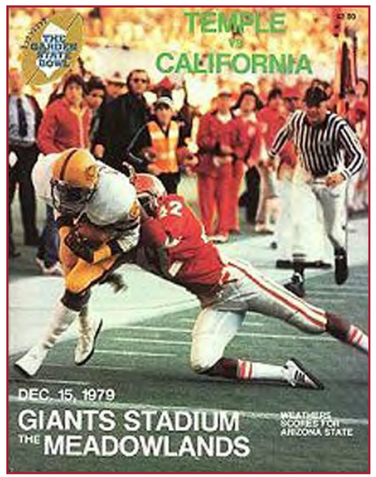
1979 GARDEN STATE BOWL

Temple 28, California 17
December 15, 1979
Giants Stadium, East Rutherford, N.J.

Temple (10-2)	21	0	0	7	28
California (6-6)	0	14	0	3	17

EAST RUTHERFORD, N.J. — Temple ended its most successful season with its first-ever bowl victory. It was the Owls' 10th win of the year (a team record) and earned Wayne Hardin's team a spot in the AP and UPI Top 20. Temple was ranked 17th in both polls, the first time the Temple football team was nationally ranked in the final wire service polls.



Appearing in their first bowl game in 45 years, the Owls jumped out to a quick 21–0 lead in the first quarter, scoring on their first three possessions. Kevin Duckett scored the first two TDs on eight and four-yard runs. QB Brian Broomell connected on a seven-yard pass to Wiley Pitts for the third score. TU had 193 yards of total offense, including 150 yards rushing, in the opening stanza.

Temple then withstood a 17-point California rally before clinching the game with a 14-play, 78-yard scoring drive over 5:58 in the fourth quarter. Broomell tossed a five-yard touchdown pass to Gerald "Sweet Feet" Lucear for the win.

The telling statistic of the game was the rushing total, with Temple gaining 300 yards on the ground while holding the Golden Bears to only 23 yards.

The game's Most Valuable Player, Temple's Mark Bright, gained 112 of those yards on 19 carries, while backfield teammate Kevin Duckett ran for 92 yards and two touchdowns. Temple quarterback Brian Broomell joined in the act by tossing touchdown strikes to Wiley Pitts and Gerald Lucear.

Temple Notables

> Temple was ranked No. 17 in the United Press International and the Associated Press final polls.

> Eight members of the 1935 Sugar Bowl team attended the game as guests of Temple President Marvin Wachman.

> During their bowl trip, the Owls toured New York City, eating at Mama Leone's and attending the musical The 1940s Radio Hour on Broadway.

> Temple received a $225,000 payout from the gate receipts. Admission prices were $5 and $12.

> After four years (1978-81), the Garden State Bowl was discontinued. That led to the formation of the Kickoff Classic, held at Giants Stadium to begin the football season.

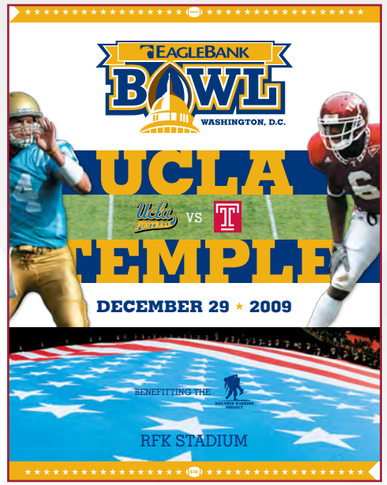
2009 EAGLE BANK BOWL

UCLA 30, Temple 21
December 29, 2009
RFK Stadium, Washington, D.C.

UCLA (7-6)	7	3	7	13	30
Temple (9-4)	7	14	0	0	21

WASHINGTON, D.C. – UCLA scored 23 unanswered points to pull off a come-from-behind win over Temple, 30-21, Tuesday evening in the EagleBank Bowl. The Bruins (7-6) spoiled the Owls' (9-4) first appearance in a bowl since 1979, but not a remarkable season that included a school-record nine-game win streak and a co-regular season Mid-American Conference East Division Championship.



A crowd of 23,072, with more than half donning Cherry and White, braved the frigid weather and blustery winds. The Owls had plenty to cheer about in the first half as the offense, directed by junior QB Vaughn Charlton and featuring the freshman backfield combination of Bernard Pierce and Matt Brown, found the end zone three times in building a 21-7 lead.

Making his first start since the Navy win on Oct. 31, Charlton (13-23, 159 yds., 1 TD) completed seven of his first eight passes for 95 yards, none bigger than the 26-yard TD to senior TE Steve Maneri that capped the Owls six-play, 80-yard opening drive.

UCLA answered two possessions later. After Terrence Austin returned a Jake Brownell punt 47 yards to the TU 46, freshman QB Kevin Prince (16-31, 222 yds, 2 TDs) found sophomore SE Nelson Rosario streaking down the left sidelines on the first play for a 46-yard score to tie the game, 7-7.

Temple, which controlled the ball on offense for 21:27 of the 30 minutes of the opening half, started to get its running on track with Pierce and Brown playing tag-team to combine for 94 yards, 61 coming in the second quarter.

Playing his first game since suffering a shoulder injury on the first play of the Kent State game, Pierce gained 86 total yards, 53 rushing on 12 carries and 33 on three receptions. He looked like his old self, especially on the Owls' second scoring drive. He barreled 13 yards up the middle for a first down to midfield and capped it with an 11-yard TD run around right end.

With Temple leading 14-7, junior DB Marquise Liverpool picked off Prince at midfield and returned the ball 21 yards before being pulled down by his facemask.

Starting at their own 15, Temple quickly marched it in with Pierce moving the ball five yards before giving way to Brown, who made three straight rushes, the last up the middle for a two-yard touchdown to give Temple a 21-7 lead with 1:25 remaining in the half.

Both teams exchanged three-and-out possessions that gave the Bruins the ball with 17 seconds left and at their own 47. Prince made two quick first down strikes, the second for 19 yards to Chane Moline, who went out-of-bounds at the Temple 22 with one second on the clock.

Junior PK Kai Forbath, the 2009 Groza Award winner given to the nation's top kicker, converted his 36th straight field goal from within 50 yards to cut the margin to 21-10 at intermission.

Senior Terrence Austin returned the opening kickoff 30 yards to the UCLA 47 and then he capped a six-play Bruin scoring drive with a 32-yard TD reception to cut the margin to 21-17.

When the Owls took the field for their first possession of the second half, Pierce was not with them. Instead he was standing on the sideline in a Temple parka, as he injured his left shoulder and would sit out the half.

Temple had its only real opportunity to score in the half on its opening possession. Two big plays, the first was by Charlton – a 21-yard first down scramble, and the second by Brown, who broke a 29-yarder to the UCLA 18. Three straight rushes by Brown made it fourth-and-one at the UCLA 9. The Owls elected to go for it, but with their big back sidelined, Brown was stopped short, ending the drive.

After that, the Bruins defense, which featured three Associated Press All-Americans, was able to put the clamps on the Owl attack. After gaining 242 yards of total offense and 12 first downs in the first half, Temple managed just four first downs and 40 yards of offense over the final 30 minutes.

The Owls only first down the remainder of the contest came on a roughing the kicker penalty that gave TU the ball at UCLA 40. Charlton then was picked off by first team All-America sophomore FS Rahim Moore, who recorded his nation's leading 10th interception on an acrobatic play defending junior WR Michael Campbell down the right sidelines.

Still, the Cherry and White defense, led by all-MAC performers Dominique Harris, Andre Neblett and Jaiquawn Jarrett, kept the Owls in the contest.

Temple held UCLA without a first down the remainder of the third quarter, and bent at the start of the fourth, before holding the Bruins to a 42-yard field goal by Forbath to make it 21-20 with 12:31 remaining to play.

The Owls defense stopped UCLA on its next possession as Alex Joseph and Muhammad Wilkerson corralled Prince in the backfield on a third and long at midfield. Temple took the ball at its own 18 and after Brown was stopped for a three-yard loss, Charlton was called for intentional grounding setting up a third and 20 from the TU 8. Charlton then was picked off at the line of scrimmage while looking for a short pass on the flat to Joe Jones by Akeem Ayers. Ayers, who would be named the MVP of the game, ran it in from two-yards out to give UCLA its first lead, 28-21.

Things went from bad to worse on Temple's next possession. James Nixon was tackled for a nine-yard loss on the first play. Brown, who finished with a game-high 83 yards on 20 carries, picked up three yards on the next play. Following an incomplete pass Brownell went back to punt, but the ball from center sailed over his head for a safety, making the score 30-21.

UCLA ran out the clock on the ensuing punt to end Temple's best season in three decades.

Pierce, who set the school record for touchdowns in a season (16) with his TD run tonight, and freshman Brandon McManus, who had three extra points, tied for the school single season scoring record with 96 points. They eclipsed the previous mark of 95 points set by PK Don Bitterlich in 1975.

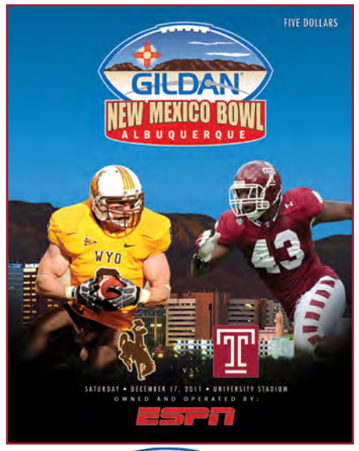
2011 GILDAN NEW MEXICO BOWL

Temple 37, Wyoming 15
December 17, 2011
UNM Stadium, Albuquerque, N.M.

Temple (9-4)	7	21	3	6	37
Wyoming (8-5)	0	7	0	8	15



ALBUQUERQUE-- Temple used three one-yard touchdown runs to jump out to a 21-0 lead over Wyoming and never looked back in posting a 37-15 over the Cowboys to win the Gildan New Mexico Bowl on Dec. 17 in front of 25,762. It is the second bowl game victory in program history and first since Temple defeated California, 28-17, in the 1979 Garden State Bowl.

The Owls finished the season on a four-game win streak at 9-4 overall. The win also extended Temple's Senior Class record to 31 wins over the last four seasons.

'I'm awful proud of our seniors, some great accomplishments from them," head coach Steve Addazio said. "That is our first bowl win since 1979 and our ninth win of the year for our seniors, their 31st win. It meant an awful lot to our program and our university."

Sophomore QB Chris Coyer was named the game's Offensive MVP, and senior LB Tahir Whitehead earned Defensive MVP honors. Coyer, showing no ill effects from a shoulder injury suffered in the team's final regular-season game against Kent State, was flawless directing the Temple attack. He completed eight of 12 passes for 169 yards and one touchdown and also rushed for 71 yards on 12 carries.

Whitehead, a second team All-MAC performer, had a team-high 11 tackles, leading an Owl defensive unit that allowed just 267 yards to the Cowboys.

Junior RB Bernard Pierce set the tone early for the Owls. Pierce, who rushed for 100 yards and two touchdowns on the day, had eight carries for 31 yards in Temple's opening drive. His last carry was a one-yard touchdown. That capped a 13-play, 90-yard drive that lasted 6:19 seconds.

Wyoming then marched down the field on an 11-play drive of its own, but junior FS Vaughn Carraway batted away a pass by freshman QB Brett Smith on a third and 16 play. Freshman PK Daniel Sullivan was then wide right on his 49-yard field goal giving the Owls the ball back on their own 31.

Senior WR Joe Jones broke a 35-yard run off a reverse on the first play of the Owls' second drive. It was one of nine straight rushes against the Cowboys 115th ranked rush defense. The last run was another Pierce one-yard TD, to make it 14-0 with 14:28 to play in the half.

Senior CB Kee-ayre Griffin then intercepted a Smith pass and returned it 30 yards to the Wyoming 35. Pierce and Coyer each had 12 yard first down runs before junior RB Matt Brown finished the drive with a one-yard TD run, making it 21-0.

The Cowboys finally got on the scoreboard as Smith connected with freshman WR Josh Doctson on a 21-yard touchdown on a 4th-and-three play with 37 seconds left in the half.

The Owls answered in one play as Coyer found a wide-open senior WR Rod Streater down the right sideline for a 61-yard touchdown to give Temple a 28-7 lead at halftime and momentum heading into the lockerroom.

Temple controlled the game on both sides of the ball in the second half. The only scoring for the Owls came on the foot of junior PK Brandon McManus, who connected on three of three field goals. Wyoming finally found the end zone again with three seconds on the clock. when Smith hit Kody Sutton for 14-yard touchdown.

Temple Notables

> Temple Captains: #85 DE Morkeith Brown, #77 OL John Palumbo, #43 DE Adrian Robinson, and #2 LB Tahir Whitehead.

> The win was Temple's second bowl win in school history. The Owls won the 1979 bowl, 28-17 over California.

> The win was the ninth win under first-year head coach Steve Addazio. He has the most wins in school history by a first-year head coach. He surpassed Wayne Hardin [1970-82] who had seven wins in 1970.

> Temple finished the 2011 season at 9-4 overall. This is the third consecutive season the Owls have posted at least eight victories and the second time in three seasons TU has won nine games.

> The win extended the school record for most wins (31) by any Senior Class in school history. The previous record was 28 wins from 1928-31. The 19 members of the Senior Class concluded their collegiate careers today.

> Senior DB Kee-ayre Griffin's interception in the second quarter was the fifth of his career and the third of his career. R-freshman Anthony Robey's interception in the second quarter was the first of his collegiate career.

> With 255 rushing yards on the day, Temple set the school record for rushing yards in a season (3,335). The previous record was 2,884 from 2009.

> Temple extended the school record for rushing touchdowns in a season. With three rushing TDs in the game, the Owls finished with 38 rushing TDs this season. The previous record was 29 rushing TDs, set by the 2009 team.

> Pierce added to his career records and finished with 324 career points, 53 career rushing touchdowns, and 54 total career touchdowns. He extended his season records to 27 touchdowns and 162 points.

> With four extra points, junior PK Brandon McManus has made 50 consecutive extra points (PAT), a new season record. He surpassed Ron Fioravanti (1979) who made 48 straight.

> The attendance of 25,762 is the second-largest bowl crowd to watch Temple. The most was 55,493 at the 1979 Garden State Bowl.

> Sophomore QB Chris Coyer (8-12-0, 169 yds 1ytd, 12 carries, 71 yds) was named the game's Offensive MVP, while senior LB Tahir Whitehead (11 tackles) earned Defensive MVP honors.

Toledo (11-2)	0	12	0	20	32

BOCA RATON, Fla. – #24 Temple couldn't complete a fourth-quarter comeback, as the Owls fell to Toledo, 32-17, in a steady downpour at the Marmot Boca Raton Bowl.

Temple's offense was sluggish in the first half, as the Owls were held to just 67 net yards. Toledo racked up 199 yards of offense, 168 in the air, using a safety, two field goals and a touchdown to lead 12-3 at the break.

The Owls were without the services of leading rusher Jahad Thomas, CB Tavon Young and LB Avery Williams, who exited the game at the half. They entered the game without Alex Wells as the first team all-conference safety suffered a hamstring injury earlier in the week.

After the teams traded punts to open up the game, Temple pinned Toledo to their own 1-yard line, giving the Owls good field position after forcing yet another Rockets' punt. Starting at their own 48-yard line, Temple used a 13-play 40-yard drive, ending with a 29-yard Austin Jones field goal to take a 3-0 lead with 1:13 left in the quarter.

Temple forced a three-and-out on Toledo's next possession, but the Rockets got on the board after a fumble from RB Jahad Thomas squirted out of the back of the end zone for a safety.

Leading 3-2, Toledo took the free kick out to their own 45, and took the lead after a five-play 55-yard drive. The score came on a 26-yard touchdown from Phillip Ely to Corey Jones, giving Toledo a 9-3 lead with 12:16 remaining in the second quarter.

Toledo tacked on a field goal as time expired to take a 12-3 lead into halftime. The Rockets forced a three-and-out from Temple, taking over at their own 42-yard line. Two big plays, including a 26-yard pass from Ely to Michael Roberts put Toledo in field goal range, where Jameson Vest made it a nine-point lead with a 38-yard field goal.

Temple opened the second half with an eight-play 67-yard drive, capped by an Austin Jones field goal, cutting the lead to 12-6. A 40-yard pass from QB Phillip Walker to WR Ventell Bryant and a 13-yard rush from Brandon Shippen, set up Jones for a 25-yard FG, his 22nd of the year, setting a new single-season school record. Jones passed Don Bitterlich's 1975 total.

The Owls forced a three-and-out on Toledo's next possession, and then set up yet another Jones field goal. Sean Chandler started the Owls at midfield with a 12-yard punt return and Walker added a 14-yard rush to set up Jones' score, which put Temple within a field goal (12-9) with 6:11 remaining in the third.

The teams traded punts to open the fourth quarter, with Alex Starzyk booting a career-best 71-yarder for Temple. However, the kick was out of the reach of the Temple defense, trickling into the end zone for a touchback. On the next play, Toledo's Ely found Cody Thompson for an 80-yard touchdown, making it 19-9 Rockets with 12:41 to play.

Temple got down to the Toledo 34 on its next possession, but Walker was intercepted by the Rockets' Juwan Haynes at the 26-yard line. From there, Toledo put together a 74-yard drive that took 5:31 off the clock, ending with a 1-yard TD run from Kareem Hunt. The Owls blocked the extra point, setting the score to 25-9 with 5:46 to play.

After the Toledo score, Temple recorded its first touchdown of the game, capping an 11-play, 68-yard drive with a two-yard run from TE Kip Patton. Shippen had two big catches on the drive, and was thrown to as Toledo was flagged for pass interference in the end zone, setting up the touchdown. Temple elected to go for two, and Walker scrambled out of pressure and somehow found Anderson in the end zone, making it an eight-point game, 25-17, with 2:50 on the clock.

Temple went for the onside kick, but the referees signaled that Toledo came up with the ball under a pile of players at midfield. Hunt then tacked on an insurance score for the Rockets, scoring from 41-yards out to put the game out of reach at 32-17 with just 2:29 on the clock.

The Owls had one more possession before the clock ran out, but the drive stalled at the Toledo 27-yard line, ending the game 32-17 in Toledo's favor.

2016 MILITARY BOWL

Wake Forest 34, #24 Temple 26
December 27, 2016
Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium Annapolis, Md.

Temple (10-4)	7	3	10	6	26
Wake Forest (7-6)	14	17	0	3	34

ANNAPOLIS — Facing off in the program's first ever back-to-back postseason appearance, No. 24 Temple came up short, 34-26, against ACC opponent Wake Forest in the Military Bowl Tuesday afternoon at Navy-Marine Corps Memorial Stadium.

Following the loss, the Owls fell to 10-4 (7-1 American) on the season, failing to reach the record 11th win Temple has been chasing these past two seasons. Despite falling behind 31-7 in the first half, Temple came surging back in the second, scoring two touchdowns and three field goals before coming up short on the final drive.

Right out of the gate, Temple showed its resolve on both sides of the ball, initially forcing an interception on the third play from scrimmage to set up the offense in ideal field position. Senior QB Phillip Walker and Co. took advantage one snap later, dropping in a 48-yard dime to junior WR Adonis Jennings, who carried his defender into the end zone.

Unfortunately, the Wake Forest offense woke up two possessions later, scoring on each of their next five drives up to the end of the first half. First, Demon Deacon QB John Wolford found his tight end on a 41-yard pass up the centerline to even the score at seven apiece. Next, after an Owls' three-and-out, Wake Forest drove 54 yards to another end zone appearance, this time a 20-yard pass from Wolford.

A muffed punt by Temple DB Sean Chandler set up the Demon Deacons inside the Owls' 10-yard line, leading to an 8-yard rush for yet-another touchdown. During the second quarter, the Wake Forest onslaught continued, as Wolford led his unit to, first, a field goal before wrapping up the half with a three-yard touchdown rush.

Temple responded in its final possession of the first half, knocking in a 45-yard field goal by freshman Aaron Boumerhi after an 11-play, 54-yard drive.

Similar to how the game began, the Owls' offense saw a spark from Jennings as the second half kicked off, this time watching the junior weave his way through the Demon Deacon defense for a 58-yard score just three snaps in.

The defense held its ground on the ensuing possession, as sophomore DB Delvon Randall intercepted Wake Forest in the end zone to squash any Demon Deacon response. Behind the efforts of Walker and multiple downfield connections, including two perfectly placed darts to sophomore WR Ventell Bryant and junior WR Keith Kirkwood, the Owls set up Boumerhi for his second field goal attempt.

On the following two possessions, after two punts from Wake Forest, Temple looked to Boumerhi yet again, watching the freshman all-conference selection drill his third and fourth field goals of the day from 32 and 38 yards out, cutting the score to under one possession.

Wake Forest extended its lead back to eight points after a field goal of their own, ensuring the Owls would need both a touchdown and two-point conversion to force overtime. Unfortunately for Temple, the offense was unable to convert a first down as the Demon Deacons took over on downs and were able to kneel the ball to secure their victory.

2017 GASPARILLA BOWL

Temple 28, FIU 3
December 21, 2017
Tropicana Field, St. Petersburg, Fla.

Temple (7-6)	0	7	7	14	28
FIU (8-5)	0	0	3	0	3

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. - Battling a resilient FIU squad in a defensive slugfest, Temple managed to never surrender its early lead as the Owls fought their way to a 28-3 victory over the Panthers at the Bad Boy Mowers Gasparilla Bowl in St. Petersburg, Fla. The group effort from Temple's defense paved the way for late offensive success, as the former compiled a bowl-record seven sacks and season-high three turnovers in the win.

Keys to the Game

> Following both offenses suffering through rough starts, Temple QB Frank Nutile and company put together the game's initial scoring drive to open the second quarter. After driving 64 yards over six plays, the redshirt junior decided the conclude the possession himself, fighting his way four yards into the end zone for the 7-0 advantage.

> Neither offense would manage a score for nearly another full quarter until FIU compiled a 12-play, 62-yard drive that concluded with a 27-yard field goal, cutting Temple's lead to 7-3.

> The Owls' offense saw fit to immediately respond to the Panthers' threat on their ensuing possession, putting together a 75-yard drive that culminated with a one-yard rushing score from redshirt junior David Hood for the 14-3 edge. The touchdown would never had happened without elite efforts from Nutile and his receiving corps, as the redshirt junior signal-caller effortlessly helped claw Temple out of a first-and-30 situation behind a pair of pinpoint throws. The true setup, though, came from redshirt senior Adonis Jennings, who despite being tackled to the ground at the one-yard line, managed to reel in a 39-yard reception all while lying nearly prone on his back.

> The Temple offensive engine continued to purr as the Owls' joint attack, both through the air and on the ground, finally broke the Panthers' sturdy defense. Taking over on the Owls' own seven-yard line, Hood kicked off festivities with a 29-yard rush up the left sideline before Nutile found sophomore WR Isaiah Wright for a 45-yard TD toss, bolstering Temple to a 21-3 advantage.

> Following FIU's third turnover of the game - fumble recovery by redshirt junior Freddie Booth-Lloyd - the Owls' offense went to work with excellent field position. Unsurprisingly, Temple quickly took advantage as junior RB Ryquell Armstead powered his way five yards for the touchdown and the game's final score, lifting the Owls to the 28-3 victory.

Game Notes

> The victory serves as the program's first postseason win since the 2011 Gildan New Mexico Bowl where Temple topped Wyoming 37-15.

> Both sides of the ball saw first-time starters, as redshirt junior Rob Ritrovato got the nod at fullback while sophomore William Kwenkeu filled in at middle linebacker.

> Midway through the first quarter with the Owls' offense reeling from a tough turnover (backwards pass ruled a fumble), S Sean Chandler saw fit to grab his third interception of the year on a deep pass deflection. The senior registered the 10th pick of his distinguished career, vaulting him into a tie for seventh all-time in the Temple record books.

> Following Chandler's early interception during the opening period, FIU's turnover woes continued as LB Shaun Bradley picked off a low pass midway through the second quarter. The interception marks the first of Bradley's young career with the Owls.

> Kwenkeu, who received the first start of his career in place of Bradley, earned his keep at middle linebacker behind some consistent play. The true sophomore recorded the first two sacks of his career and assisted the defense with six tackles on the game.

> Following Nutile's solid performance under center, as he threw for 254 yards and one touchdown on 18-of-28 passing, the redshirt junior was awarded Most Valuable Player (MVP) honors.

> As for head coach Geoff Collins, the win serves as just the second time in Gasparilla Bowl history that a first-year head coach brought home a victory, joining then-Louisville head coach Charlie Strong who did the same in 2010.

> The Temple defense put together seven sacks for the game, good for second-best by the unit this season (9.0 in win over UMass) and a bowl-record.

TEMPLE SUFFERS SECOND HALF COLLAPSE

SHREVEPORT, La. - In front of 27,492 fans at Independence Stadium the Temple Owls fell to the Duke Blue Devils 56-27 in the 43rd Independence Bowl to finish the season 8-5.

Temple and Duke traded scores throughout the first 30 minutes with the 48 points making for the highest combined scoring first half in Temple bowl history. The Owls couldn't get much going in the second half and were unable to keep the Blue Devils out of the endzone, resulting in a lopsided victory for Duke.

How it Happened
>After starting the game on offense with a quick three-and-out, the Owls set up on defense. On the third play of the drive, Duke completed a 62-yard pass to get all the way to the Owls' three yardline. The Blue Devils eventually punched it in on a QB keeper to take the first lead of the game 7-0.

>Isaiah Wright took the ensuing kick-off 74-yards to set up the offense on the Duke 26 yardline. After converting a third down on a pass from QB Anthony Russo to WR Brodrick Yancy, Russo took the ball 15 yards on a read-option into the endzone to even the score 7-7.

>On the following drive, Duke looked to be stringing together a productive drive before SAF Delvon Randall picked off a dump pass and took it 52-yards for a touchdown. The extra point was missed and the Owls took a 13-7 lead after one quarter.

>On Duke's first drive of the second quarter, CB Linwood Crump nabbed an interception on an under thrown ball to give the Owls the ball back on their own 42 yardline.

>Russo and company put together an efficient 10-play, 58-yard drive capped off by a touchdown by FB Rob Ritrovato. His one yard punch-in made the score 20-7 Temple with 10:25 left to play in the half.

>The Blue Devils answered with a touchdown of their own on the next drive. Duke went 70-yards on seven plays and scored on a 34-yard touchdown pass to close the gap, 20-14. Temple started the next drive on its own 27 yardline. Russo hit WR Sean Ryan on three separate passes for 12, 5, and then 27 yards to get the Owls into the redzone. After an 11-yard and three-yard run by RB Jager Gardner, Russo connected with Yancy on a crossing route for an 8-yard touchdown to put Temple ahead 27-14.

>Duke answered once again with a 22-yard catch and throw for a touchdown to keep it a one score game, 27-21 with 1:11 left to play in the half. The half ended 27-21.

>Duke scored on its first three drives of the second half to regain and push the lead to 42-27. Temple couldn't get much going in the third quarter in order to counter the high-powered Blue Devils' offense.

>After putting together a drive to get to the four yardline before the end of the third quarter, the Blue Devils scored again at the start of the final quarter to make the score 49-27.

>Duke added one more touchdown in the fourth quarter to account for the final score, 56-27.

Notes
>The Owls scored the most points in program history this season.

>Wright had the longest kick return in Temple bowl history with a 74-yard return.

>Randall's 52-yard pick-six was the longest interception return in Temple bowl history, he also had seven tackles.

>Randall and DT Michael Dogbe now hold the record for most games played as an Owl with 54. Randall played in 54 consecutive games.

FACILITIES

Lincoln Financial Field

Lincoln Financial Field, home to the National Football League's Philadelphia Eagles, is a prime destination for world-class entertainment, providing the highest quality sports and entertainment experiences for fans in a safe, clean and friendly environment. In addition to Temple Football's home games, Lincoln Financial Field hosts 10 Eagles games each year and continues to showcase high-profile sporting events and unique experiences year-round. Since opening in August 2003, Lincoln Financial Field has hosted nearly 20 sold-out concerts, has welcomed some of the world's most distinguished soccer clubs and also serves as the home to the historic Army-Navy game. Additionally, the stadium has hosted multiple NCAA Lacrosse Championships, as well as Monster Jam and many other marquee events.

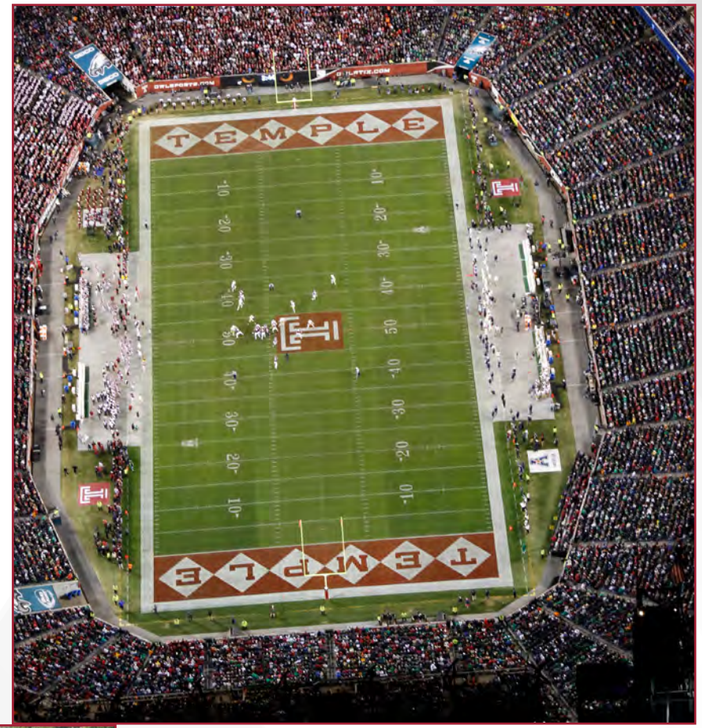
On August 13, 2003, the Philadelphia Eagles and Temple University announced a 15-year pact for the Owls to play their home football games at Lincoln Financial Field. An average of 24,137 fans per game witnessed the Cherry & White in its inaugural season at the venue, a 21 percent increase from the prior year's average.

In 2015, Temple set a record with an average of 44,158 spectators per game including a record home crowd of 69,280 on October 31 when the #21 Owls hosted #9 Notre Dame in Temple's first-ever ranked vs. ranked game.

Familiarly known as The Linc, it has a seating capacity of 69,596. The stadium is located in South Philadelphia on Pattison Avenue between 11th and 10th Streets, closer to the area's stretch of Interstate 95 than to Pattison.

In 2011, the stadium became powered with a combination of on-site wind, solar, and dual-fuel generated electricity, making it the world's first major sports stadium to convert to self-generated renewable energy. Approximately $25 million was invested to build the system, saving the Eagles an estimated $60 million in energy costs.

In August 2014, the Eagles completed a $125 million revitalization project to ensure that guests of Lincoln Financial Field are enjoying their in-stadium experience through enhanced convenience, comfort and connectivity.



Edberg-Olson Hall

Edberg-Olson Hall is the home of the Temple University football program. Officially dedicated on December 9, 2000, the facility was designed by AP3C Architects of Philadelphia. The building was engineered to not only support the football team's functional requirements, but to enhance the experience through innovative design concepts.

During the season, approximately 250 people will pass through its doors on a daily basis. In 2012, Edberg-Olson Hall underwent a $10 million upgrade with a 15,000-square-foot expansion. The original 23,600-square-foot building contains team and coaches locker rooms, a training room, equipment facilities, coach's offices, a players' lounge, individual position meeting rooms, and a theater-style team meeting room. Opened in July 2012, the upgrade has a strength and conditioning area that expanded from 2,500 square feet to 10,000 square feet. The expansion also features an enlarged sports medicine office with hydrotherapy, a full-service academic support area, and a 3,500-square-foot team function room. An observation balcony runs the length of the building. It is the perfect complement to a gridiron landscape outside featuring over 100,000 square feet of Sprinturf and 24,000 square feet of Astroturf. Eight, 85-foot poles providing 85 candles of white rendition light line the perimeter of the complex. Powder-coated cyclone fences provide privacy.

In 2014, Edberg Olson received a facelift. As part of a $1.5 million capital project that upgraded the locker rooms for all 19 Temple varsity sports, the football facility installed 125 new lockers and flatscreen televisions. In addition, updated graphics adorn the walls throughout the hallways and in the weight room.

The S.T.A.R. Complex

Temple University's new $28.5 million, 110,000 square foot Student Training and Recreation (STAR) Complex, a multipurpose academic, athletics and recreation facility, has been named for dining-services partner Aramark.

The complex provides the football team with an indoor facility to use throughout the winter and when weather prevents outdoor practice during the season.

Construction on the complex, which began in May 2016, was completed in August 2017. The facility offers labs for the College of Public Health, a 10,000 square foot weight and cardio area, facilities and offices for the Athletics and Campus Recreation departments, an indoor 70-yard synthetic turf field, and a 2-lane track outside the building.

The main lobby includes a climbing wall, lounge area and a Jamba Juice.

TEMPLE FOOTBALL

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

RICHARD M. ENGLERT

President
41st Year at Temple

Accessible. High quality. Engaged with the community. Affordable. Diverse. Those are the pillars of Richard M. Englert's presidency. They are also the values he has championed at Temple University for more than 40 years.

After serving Temple with loyalty and distinction in 16 different roles since 1976, Englert became president on July 21, 2016. Under his leadership, the university welcomed its largest and most academically qualified class of new students and broke records for freshman applications. It also began major campus renovations, highlighted by a state-of-the-art library. At the same time, Temple's faculty gained unprecedented national recognition, and its student-athletes reached new levels of success on the field and off.

"I can say without reservation that there has never been a better time to be part of the Temple family, whether you are a student, faculty member, administrator or alumnus," Englert said. "We have a strong dedication to our mission and an unrelenting commitment to our students, our neighbors and our great city."

Englert arrived at Temple as an assistant to the dean of the College of Education. Over the years, he has been provost and interim senior vice president for academic affairs, dean of the College of Education and vice president for administration, among many other roles. Since 1985, he has served as a professor in the College of Education.

Throughout his career, Englert has always responded to Temple's call. In recognition of his lifelong dedication, the Board of Trustees appointed him to the honorific role of university chancellor in 2012.

"President Englert has devoted his life to Temple University," said Board of Trustees Chair Patrick J. O'Connor. "Over the course of his 40-year-plus career at Temple, he has earned a reputation as an outstanding teacher, administrator and leader who always puts the needs of our students first."

Englert earned a doctorate in educational administration from the University of California, Los Angeles. He also has a master's degree from Pepperdine University and a bachelor's degree from St. John's College.

As Temple's president, Englert has focused the university on its historic commitments: engaging with the city of Philadelphia; producing research that improves lives, including work on opioid abuse and traumatic brain injury; and energizing the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Most of all, as a lifelong educator, Englert takes every opportunity to empower Temple's inspiring students and faculty.

"Temple has proved that excellence in education, access, affordability, diversity and community engagement are not mutually exclusive," Englert said. "That's what we've done better than anyone else for more than 130 years. It is who we are and it is the dedication to our mission that will make Temple an even greater institution in the years to come."

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

DR. PATRICK KRAFT

Director of Athletics
7th Year at Temple

Since his appointment as Director of Athletics in May 2015, after serving two years as Deputy Director of Athletics, Dr. Patrick Kraft has led a transformation in Temple University's Department of Athletics. During his tenure, investments and enhancements in student-athlete welfare, in support of coaches and staff, in academic support and in facilities have provided deserved regional and national attention for the University.

In 2016, Kraft was recognized by the Sports Business Journal and by the Philadelphia Business Journal's Forty Under 40 for his work at Temple.

In 2018, Kraft was appointed to a four-year term on the NCAA Division I Strategic Vision and Planning Committee.

In 2019, Kraft was selected to represent the American Athletic Conference on the NCAA Division I Football Oversight Committee.

Among the accomplishments and initiatives during Kraft's tenure:

On the Field

- Football won the 2016 American Athletic Conference Championship, marking its first Conference Championship since 1967 and first Conference Championship Game win ever; won 20 games in a two-year span (2015-16), was nationally-ranked for consecutive seasons, all for first time in school history; and football was one of five FBS teams to win 10 or more games in each in the 2015 and 2016 seasons and play in its conference championship game in each year. The Owls won the 2017 Gasparilla Bowl, the third Bowl victory in program history. Football has also competed in bowl games in all four years of Kraft's tenure, marking a record for consecutive postseason appearances.
- Men's Basketball won its first American Athletic Conference Regular Season title (2016), and first regular season title since 2012; defeated nationally ranked teams (#24 Florida State, #19 West Virginia) in consecutive days for the first time in school history to win the 2016 NIT Season Tip-Off and earned a berth in the 2016 and 2019 NCAA Tournaments.
- Women's Basketball cracked the Top 25 in 2017 for the first time since the 2005-06 season and made its first NCAA appearance in five years.
- Volleyball finished #47 in NCAA RPI in 2016, its best finish since the 2002 season and posted its third straight 20-win season. In 2017, Volleyball advanced to postseason play for the first time in 15 years with a bid to the WNIVC.
- Men's Soccer cracked the Top 25 in 2015 for the first time since 1997 and posted its first road win over Penn State since 1989.
- Women's Lacrosse made an appearance in the Top 20 in 2016 for the first time since 2005.
- Women's Gymnastics posted its best 10 scores in program history during the 2016-17 season and sent its first individual qualifier since 2009, Daisy Todd, to NCAA Regionals. In 2018, the Owls reached their highest national ranking (#13) in program history and in 2019 won their first-ever ECAC Championship.
- Women's Fencing set a school record for wins in 2017 and earned its highest ever ranking (#6). In 2018, Malia Hee was named the NCAA's Elite 90 Award recipient for academic and athletic excellence. The program captured its 24th straight NIWFA championship in 2019.
- Men's Crew won the Varsity Eight, the JV Eight and the Freshman Eight championships at the 2018 Dad Vail Regatta, the first sweep of the eights at the Dad Vail in 50 years. The Varsity Eight set a course record and won Dad Vail gold for the first time since 2004. With the victory, the V8 earned an invitation to participate in the Henley Royal Regatta in Henley-on-Thames, U.K., for the first time since 1994.
- Women's Soccer posted consecutive double-digit win seasons (2014, 2015) for the first time in program history.
- Blanca Fernandez became the first ever All-American in Temple Women's Cross Country history and first women's track All-American since 1988. Men's Cross Country won its' first-ever IC4A Championship and placed third in the AAC Championships, the best AAC finish in program history.
- Men's Tennis had its doubles team ranked among the Top 25 during the 2018-19 season.

In the Classroom

- Student-athletes achieved a record nine consecutive semesters with a combined GPA of 3.10 or above and 15 consecutive semesters above a 3.0. Eighteen programs earned a cumulative GPA greater than 3.0, and the combined 2019 spring semester GPA was a record 3.24.
- Men's Basketball, Men's Cross Country, Football, Men's Golf, Men's Soccer, Women's Cross Country, Fencing, Field Hockey, Lacrosse, Women's Rowing, Women's Soccer, Women's Tennis, Women's Track & Field and Volleyball (16 out of 19 sports) have achieved record team GPAs in the past eight semesters.
- A record 76.5 percent of student-athletes earned at least a 3.0 GPA in the spring of 2019. Another Temple record was set with seven teams earning public recognition for their Academic Performance Rate (APR) data in each of the last three years. Temple led all AAC schools and tied for 14th among FBS schools for APR public recognition in 2019.
- In the spring of 2018, an all-time record 178 student-athletes earned a semester GPA of 3.5+ as well as a record number of 27 student-athletes earned a perfect 4.0 semester GPA.
- In 2019, the Owls ranked fourth nationally with a school record for single-year APR of 993. Only Notre Dame (999), Northwestern (997), and Stanford (995) had better APRs. After ranking 9th in multi-year APR among FBS institutions in 2018, Temple's average multi-year APR of 992 tied for seventh with Michigan and Cincinnati.
- In 2017, student-athletes posted a record high 88% Graduation Success Rate (GSR), setting a school-record for the seventh consecutive year. Temple also set a school record with its highest Federal Graduation Rate (74%) in both 2017 and 2018. Temple Football posted an 81 GSR and is one of 19 FBS teams to have maintained a GSR of 80 or greater in each of the last five years.
- Nine Temple teams earned 90 or higher GSR scores in 2018 with a record-tying six —Women's Lacrosse, Women's Rowing, Women's Soccer, Men's and Women's Tennis and Women's Volleyball - posting a perfect 100 score. The tennis programs accomplished this feat for the ninth straight year.
- Temple's graduation class of 2019 earned a combined GPA of 3.27, and is the fourth straight graduating class who has never seen the student-athlete population earn a semester GPA of less than 3.0.

Student-Athlete Welfare

- Facilitated the development of a number of initiatives aimed at improving the mental health of student-athletes, including the establishment of a partnership with Temple's Department of Clinical Psychology to deliver onsite behavioral health coaching for student-athletes. Partnered with the University's Student Health Services so its staff can be a resource for all student-athletes.
- Hired the first full-time mental health professional dedicated solely to handling student-athlete needs in 2017, expanding the staff to two full-time members a year later.
- Instituted a career program with more than 50 national and regional employers attending career development events, during which student-athletes have the opportunity to hone their networking skills and establish professional connections.
- The Verified Program was developed in 2016 to provide student-athletes with access to high level professionals to assist in their professional growth. The Verified program is a product of a strong collaboration between the Resnick Center and the Temple Career Center, which provides regular programming and career coaching for student-athletes throughout the academic year and summer.
- Students have served more than 10,000 community service hours in 65 projects since 2014-2015, four times more than in previous periods.

Enhancing Facilities

- The Temple Sports Complex, home to men's and women's soccer, lacrosse, field hockey and track opened in the fall of 2016.
- The newly restored East Park Canoe House, home to men's crew and women's rowing, opened in 2016.
- New practice facility for Men's Golf opened in 2017.
- New practice facilities for Men's Crew, Women's Rowing and Women's Fencing were opened in the fall of 2018.
- In January of 2018, Temple opened the New York City Angels Student-Athlete Lounge, an on-campus location in which student-athletes can study, interact and relax.
- Enhancements have been made to athletic training facilities, strength and conditioning facilities, and to the student-athlete academic support center while locker room renovations and upgrades were also completed for each varsity team, including new locker rooms for Temple's Olympic sports programs unveiled in 2015.
- Temple Athletics opened the doors to the brand-new STAR (Student Training and Recreation) Complex in the fall of 2017. The Complex offers a 10,000 square foot weight and cardio area, facilities for the Athletics and Campus Recreation departments, an indoor turf field, and a two-lane track outside the building.
- Nutrition stations have also been created for student-athletes for all athletic teams.

Bolstering Staff

- Increased athletics administrative staff by over 30 percent, establishing new departments for digital media, television production and mental health.
- Hired eight new head coaches, including current football coach Rod Carey and men's basketball head coach Aaron McKie.

Enhancing Revenue and the Brand

- Annual donations have increased 75% over the last four years and the development office has had four consecutive record-setting years in annual fundraising, including multiple six and seven-figure commitments in support of the football program, the new Temple Owls Sports Complex, and the Men's Crew and Women's Rowing programs.
- Key partnerships with Learfield Sports Properties, Learfield Licensing Partners, and IMG/Learfield Ticket Solutions have been secured and enhanced as well as a lucrative rights deal with Under Armour.
- Created OwlsTV, a video services arm dedicated to athletics, and developed a broad-ranging digital and social media department to integrate video and engage the Temple fan base.
- Temple Football posted the largest attendance gain among FBS programs during the 2015 season, playing in front of an average home crowd of 44,159, an increase of 20,789 per game.
- In 2015, ESPN's College GameDay made its first trip to Philadelphia for a Temple football game.

Prior to Temple, Kraft served two years (2011-13) as the Executive Senior Associate Athletics Director at Loyola University Chicago. He was also a member of the senior staff at his alma mater, Indiana University, serving as Senior Assistant Director from 2009-11.

Kraft played football as an undergraduate at Indiana and holds three degrees from the University. He earned a bachelor's degree in sports marketing/management (2000), a master's degree in athletic administration (2005), and a doctorate in sports management (2008).

Kraft and his wife, Betsy, reside in Haddonfield, N.J., with their daughter, Annabelle, and son, Joseph.

SENIOR ADMINISTRATORS

CRAIG ANGELOS

Deputy Director of Athletics
5th Year at Temple

TWITTER: @cwangelos

Craig Angelos is in his fifth year as Temple University's Deputy Director of Athletics. Angelos joined the Owls staff in June of 2015.

At Temple, Angelos works with the Owls external team that includes strategic communications, corporate sales (Learfield), creative services, development, marketing and promotions, social and digital media, ticket operations, ticket sales, video services, and strategic planning. He also serves as the sports supervisor for men's basketball, field hockey, men's soccer and golf.

Angelos, who has served on the athletics senior staff at five different Division I institutions as well as the NCAA national office, came to Temple from Florida International University where he served as the Senior Associate Athletic Director for Revenue Enhancement from 2014-15. While at FIU, he was responsible for finding new revenue sources for the athletic department and engaging in all aspects of development activities, while helping overall fundraising to a 20% increase.

Before his stint at FIU, Angelos was the number two person as the Executive Senior Associate Athletic Director at the University of South Florida, overseeing all external areas as well as having oversight of the football program.

Prior to USF, Angelos served nine years as the Director of Athletics at Florida Atlantic University from 2003-2012. At FAU, he led the effort to build a $70 million, 30,000 seat on campus football facility, which opened on campus in 2011.

Angelos also held number two positions as the Deputy Athletic Director and Chief Operating Officer at Indiana University overseeing all the external areas as well as the football program and was the Senior Associate Athletic Director at the University of Miami (Fla.). Prior to his tenure at Miami, Angelos spent three years at the NCAA as a legislative assistant interpreting NCAA rules and regulations.

A graduate of the Creighton University School of Law, Angelos worked for a short time in a mid-sized litigation firm in Los Angeles, Calif. He earned his bachelor's degree from Brigham Young University where he was the starting first basemen on the baseball team and later played in Buttrio, Italy for an Italian professional baseball league.

Angelos and his wife, Kristin, have six children.

JEREMY JORDAN

Faculty Athletic Representative
10th Year at Temple (4th as FAR)

TWITTER: @Jeremy_S_Jordan

Dr. Jeremy S. Jordan is the Associate Dean of the School of Sport, Tourism and Hospitality Management (STHM), where he also serves as an Associate Professor of Sport and Recreation Management.

Jordan arrived at Temple in 2008, and during this time with STHM he has contributed to the growth of the school in a variety of areas. His research focuses on the individual and community benefits of spectator and participant events. Specifically, his research examines consumer expectations and satisfaction, motives for participation, commitment to the event and/or activity, and economic activity, all within the theoretical framework of involvement. Events have the capacity to stimulate new money into the host economy, create and reinforce business opportunities, and facilitate social cohesion.

He co-founded Temple's Sport Industry Research Center (SIRC). Created in 2008, SIRC is a collaborative research network providing innovative marketing and management strategies to enhance the economic, social, and environmental sustainability of sporting events. As part of SIRC, Jordan has lead research projects with numerous industry partners such as: the National Football League; Life Time Athletic Events, Philadelphia Marathon & Half Marathon; National Dog Show; Blue Cross Broad Street Run; Temple Athletics; Tough Mudder; Students Run Philly Style; Black Girls Run!; Concilio; Philadelphia Hispanic Fiesta; and Welcome America.

Additionally, Jordan works closely with the Temple Department of Athletics, for which he serves as the university's NCAA Faculty Athletics Representative. In that role, he acts as liaison between academics and athletics, and with the university's Board of Trustees, the President's Office, and the Provost's Office, to ensure academic integrity of Temple's intercollegiate athletics programs.

He received his PhD in Sport Management from The Ohio State University in 2001. In addition, Dr. Jordan has a Master's in Exercise and Sport Science from the University of Utah (1995) and a Bachelor's in Physical Education from La Sierra University (1993).

VINNIE JAMES

Chief of Staff (Football Administrator)
5th Year at Temple

TWITTER: @VinJames33

Vinnie James, who joined the Temple Athletics staff in July, 2014, was promoted to the position of Senior Associate Athletics Director/Chief of Staff in July, 2019. He had served as the Associate Athletics Director/Chief of Staff for two years and prior to that held the position of Assistant Athletics Director for Business Operations.

In his new role, James will oversee the department's digital strategy and video production arm as well as providing high-level support to the Director of Athletics by handling special projects, conducting research and facilitating comparative analyses. In addition, James serves as the sport administrator for the football program and will continue monitoring operating budgets for the department's 19 sport programs and administrative areas.

James came to Temple from La Salle University where he spent two years as Athletics Business Manager for the Explorers. He was solely responsible for executing the daily business operations for La Salle's athletics department. James distributed monthly budget reports for all sports and departments, and assisted in the overall budget planning for the department.

Prior to his time at La Salle, James spent a year at Villanova University as an intern in the Athletic Director's office. His responsibilities at Villanova were widely varied, and included working with the business office as well as providing administrative support and serving as event manager for women's soccer.

James is a 2007 graduate of Bloomsburg University with a bachelor's degree in political science. He was a four-year varsity starter and two-year team captain for Bloomsburg's baseball team, and he went on to earn a master's in business administration from Bloomsburg in 2009. While completing the MBA program, James served as a graduate assistant baseball coach.

Mid Week

Below is a "regular" in-season schedule for Saturday game weeks. All schedules are subject to change.

Interview Requests
All interview requests for players, coaches or staff members should be directed to the Athletic Communications staff.

Practice Regulations
Head coach Rod Carey and select players will be available for brief interviews following daily practices early in the week. Advance notice is required to the Department of Athletic Communications. Photographers and videographers are permitted to shoot the first 15 minutes of practice. Otherwise, all practices are closed to all individuals except Temple football personnel.

Please make interview requests by Sunday evenings. Player interviews take place on Mondays, Tuesdays & Wednesdays during the season. The Owls practice on Chodoff Field at the Edberg-Olson Hall facility, located at 10th and Diamond Streets.

Weekly Football Release
To access Temple's weekly football release, please visit www.OwlSports.com. The weekly release will include updated game notes, schedule, depth chart, and game-by-game wrap-ups. Team and individual statistics will be posted to the website as well.

Weekly Press Conferences

Rod Carey's weekly media gathering is held each Tuesday at Edberg-Olson Hall on the main campus (10th & Diamond Streets, 2nd floor). Please check the weekly gamenotes for schedule.

Game Day
Press Box Phone (267) 570-4453

Credentials
All requests for home games must be made through Football Communications. Season credentials should be requested in the preseason and game-by-game credentials must be requested at least one week prior to the game. Local media requesting credentials for a road game must have that request into Athletic Communications two weeks prior to the contest (preceding Monday) by submitting in writing on company letterhead by e-mail (rich.burg@temple.edu).

Media Parking
Media parking at Lincoln Financial Field is available on a limited basis. Please contact Rich Burg in Athletic Communications at (215) 204-0876 for availability.

Taxi Cabs
For transportation to and from Lincoln Financial Field, it is suggested that you call either Checker Cab Co. at (215) 744-8294 or Olde City Taxi at (215) 338-0838.

Media Will-Call / Entrance
Media attending games at Lincoln Financial Field must enter on the west side of the stadium (facing 11th St.) across from the Wells Fargo Center. Credentials left at will-call must be picked up at that entrance only.

Statistics
Complete individual and team statistics and play-by-play will be distributed throughout the press box at the conclusion of each quarter.

Locker Room Policy
Temple maintains a closed locker room policy.

Post-Game Interview Procedures
Following games, head coaches and players from both teams are made available to the media. Please take the elevator to the street level and proceed across the lobby (to the right of the Touchdown Club). Follow the signs to the media conference rooms, located on the east side of the stadium. Each team will utilize an interview room adjacent to its respective locker room. Please address player requests to the Temple Athletic Communications staff and the visiting school's sports information representative by the 10-minute mark of the fourth quarter.

Telephone Services
All seat locations and photographer work areas at Lincoln Financial Field have complimentary lines for high-speed Internet access as well as local and 800 telephone service. Wireless internet access is also available and pool phones will be accessible in the press box for outgoing calls. If you need more services, please contact Athletic Communications.

RADIO & TV

HARRY DONAHUE

Radio Play-By-Play
26th Year at Temple

TWITTER: @harydona

The 2019 season marks Harry Donahue's 26th consecutive year as the voice of Temple University football. A Philadelphia native, he has also served as play-by-play announcer for the Owls' men's basketball program since the 2002-03 campaign.

One of the most recognizable voices in the Delaware Valley, Donahue worked as a morning news and sports anchor at KYW Newsradio (1060 AM) since 1979 before retiring in 2014. He first joined the station in 1974 as a freelance reporter and anchor.

Donahue is a well-known broadcaster and an integral part of the Philadelphia sports scene. He has done play-by-play for Eagles preseason games, 76ers basketball contests and college basketball for ESPN's Atlantic 10 Conference Game of the Week. Every Sunday, NFL fans around the country hear Donahue describe NFL Films' highlights that are displayed on stadium scoreboards. He is the voice of NFL.com's weekly highlights. Donahue also hosted "Temple Sports Now," a bi-weekly TV show that featured Owl athletics.

Donahue was the play-by-play voice for the Philadelphia Stars of the USFL. He has also hosted "Center Court," the pre-game, half-time, and post-game shows for the 76ers' telecasts.

Donahue's reporting has earned him two Pennsylvania Associated Press Awards for his coverage of the Philadelphia Phillies' World Series run in 1980. In May 2000, he was inducted into the Pennsylvania Sports Hall of Fame.

Donahue is a graduate of Saint Joseph's University. He and his wife Lynda reside in Montgomery County, Pa., and have three sons and five grandchildren.

PAUL PALMER

Radio Color Analyst
7th Year at Temple

TWITTER: @PaulPalmer_6

In 2013, former Temple All-American running back Paul Palmer (1983-86) added the job of color analyst for the Temple Radio Network for all football game broadcasts to his list of accomplishments.

For Palmer it was a return to radio. He served as the Owls' sideline reporter for four seasons (2001-04). Palmer replaced 1974 Maxwell Award winner Steve Joachim, who had to step aside following 13 years as the color analyst for Temple Football due to increased work commitments with his full-time position.

A unanimous first-team All-American in 1986, his senior season, Palmer led the nation in rushing yards (1,866), rushing yards per game (169.6) and all-purpose yards (2,633) that season. Named 1986 ECAC Player of the Year, Palmer set 23 school records and remains the Owls' career leader in rushing attempts (935), rushing yards (4,895), 100-yard rushing games (21), and 200-yard rushing games (6).

Palmer finished second in the 1986 Heisman Trophy race to Miami QB Vinny Testaverde. He became the first Temple Football player to be elected to the College Football Hall of Fame when he was officially inducted in December of 2018.

A native of Potomac, Md., Palmer was a first round draft pick by the Kansas City Chiefs where he led the AFC in kickoff return average (24.3 yards per attempt) as a rookie and rushed for 607 yards in two seasons.

Palmer, who resides in Lawnside, N.J., has served as an assistant football coach at Haddon Heights High School from 2010-17.

On the Airwaves
Temple University and its media rights holder, Temple Sports Properties, will produce a radio broadcast of all football games. This season, the broadcast can be heard on 97.5 The Fanatic. The Fanatic, a Greater Media station powered by ESPN, is Philadelphia's first FM sports station and is home to the Philadelphia Flyers and Philadelphia 76ers. For additional information about The Fanatic and to listen online, log on to the station's website at: www.975thefanatic.com

On the Internet
For the latest info on Owls Football, visit Temple Athletics' web site, www.OwlSports.com. In addition to live stats and audio of all games, fans can watch video of weekly press luncheons, head coach Rod Carey's post-game press conferences, and the most up-to-date information on the Owls.

2019 American Coaches Weekly Teleconference

The American Athletic Conference football coaches will hold a weekly teleconference for the media beginning Monday, August 27. The call will take place each Monday during the season. Each coach will be available for approximately 10 minutes. Media members who wish to access the teleconference should contact Chuck Sullivan to receive the dial-in number. The call begins promptly at 11:00am.

For those who are not able to participate during the live teleconference, an archive of Monday's call will be available on the conference website at www.TheAmerican.org.

Weekly Releases & Statistics

Media members may access PDF versions of the complete weekly release, including conference and team-by-team statistics, on TheAmerican.org. Regular updates of the weekly release will be distributed via e-mail from the conference office. To be included on the distribution list, send an e-mail request to Chuck Sullivan.

Video Content

The American audio and video content — including game highlights and coaches' press conferences — is available to interested broadcast outlets through the XOS Digital XChange platform. Send an email request to Chuck Sullivan to receive access to the content.

Postseason Awards

All-American Athletic Conference First and Second Teams, Players of the Year on offense, defense and special teams, Rookie of the Year and Coach of the Year are selected by a vote of the league's 12 head coaches at the conclusion of the regular season. The awards will be announced in December 2017. The American All-Academic Team is comprised of players who have an overall grade-point average of 3.00 or better over the past academic year and completed at least two semesters of academic work. The team is announced in July. The American Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year was established to recognize student-athletes who have achieved success in the classroom and on the field. The winner receives a scholarship which may be applied to graduate or professional studies.

Weekly Awards

The American names offensive, defensive and special teams Players of the Week each Monday morning during the season. Winners are chosen from nominations provided by the conference school's sports information directors.

Conference Championship Game

On Saturday, December 1, 2018, the American Athletic Conference will hold its fourth Conference Championship Game. Kickoff will be at 12:00 noon and will be televised nationally by ABC or ESPN. The game will pit the divisional champions from the East and West divisions.

The divisional champions will be the teams from each division with the highest winning percentage in all conference games – both divisional and non-divisional. In the event of a two-team tie within a division, the head-to-head result between the tied teams will determine the divisional champion. The site of the American Athletic Conference Football Championship will be the home venue of the divisional champion with the best record in conference games.
